INTRODUCTION

www.wordmeaning.org is an open and collaborative dictionary project that, apart from being able to consult meanings of words, also offers its users the possibility of including new words or nuancing the meaning of existing words in it. As is understandable, this project would be impossible to carry out without the esteemed collaboration of the people who follow us around the world. This e-Book, therefore, was born with the intention of paying a small tribute to all our collaborators.

Lucas Torres has contributed to the dictionary with 1 meanings that we have approved and collected in this small book. We hope that the reader is very valuable and if you find it useful or want to be part of the project, do not hesitate to visit our website, we will be delighted to receive you.

It is the plural of curriculum vitae ( set of objectives, methodologies, evaluation,... in the process of teaching-learning ). So the schedules that are part of a race constitute the curriculum of the same, a curriculum is specific to a discipline or field. I've searched for a long time this meaning. A doctoral thesis defense, one of the evaluators jury, mentioned occasionally the difference between the terms curriculum and curriculum. Orally, making this distinction. However, I do not know if it is correct, so I have not been able to verify.
