INTRODUCTION

www.wordmeaning.org is an open and collaborative dictionary project that, apart from being able to consult meanings of words, also offers its users the possibility of including new words or nuancing the meaning of existing words in it. As is understandable, this project would be impossible to carry out without the esteemed collaboration of the people who follow us around the world. This e-Book, therefore, was born with the intention of paying a small tribute to all our collaborators.

furoya has contributed to the dictionary with 4 meanings that we have approved and collected in this small book. We hope that the reader is very valuable and if you find it useful or want to be part of the project, do not hesitate to visit our website, we will be delighted to receive you.

1°_ While it means "brother", it is also used as an expression to call a friend, companion or even a stranger as an affectionate way to address him. 2°_ Friar, religious, is the same use that is given in Spanish to "brother in the faith".

Deern (pr . diern) means "girl, young girl". It comes from the medieval Germanic dêrne, which takes it from the Old Saxon thiorna ("maiden, virgin, maid"), which is related to dirne (pr. dione) which is used as a "girl (lower class), and also as a prostitute".

ge-

It is a prefix with several uses, such as the marking of verbal participles; or the beginning, time or end of an event; or the creation of collective nouns, with a relationship of union; or also to indicate in a noun that it is the result of an action mentioned by a verb; and has a similar use to the 're-' in Spanish, as an intensifier that is put into words to indicate that "it is much, long, durable".

wir

It is the pronoun "we or us" in nominative . It comes from the Old Germanic wir, related to the Norse vær.
