

SPANISH DICTIONARY

John Rene Plaut

INTRODUCTION

www.wordmeaning.org is an open and collaborative dictionary project that, apart from being able to consult meanings of words, also offers its users the possibility of including new words or nuancing the meaning of existing words in it. As is understandable, this project would be impossible to carry out without the esteemed collaboration of the people who follow us around the world. This e-Book, therefore, was born with the intention of paying a small tribute to all our collaborators.

John Rene Plaut has contributed to the dictionary with 11532 meanings that we have approved and collected in this small book. We hope that the reader is very valuable and if you find it useful or want to be part of the project, do not hesitate to visit our website, we will be delighted to receive you.

Working Group

www.wordmeaning.org

bloom

BLOOM anglicism by FLORECER 2 . There are many people of German and English origin surname Bloom.

blooper

BLOOPER anglicism from onomatopoeic Bloop! by snap, screwed up, gazapo, muddy. It is used to define small sequences with facts that contain a production error, calling themselves false take.

bluffear

BLUFFEAR make bluff, pretend to cheat in the card game by betting as if you had a weaker hand. or stronger than you really have. 2 . Perform acts that tend to make others believe that one possesses information, authority or resources that you don't actually have.

boar

BOAR boar

boardercross

BOARDERCROSS competition between 4 to 6 competitors running in the snow with a snowboard or snowboard. The tracks are narrow and with all kinds of obstacles, to challenge the dexterity of contestants who run at high speed and with little space.

bob esponja

SPONGEBOB character from the world of cartoons who lives in the city of Bikini at the bottom of the sea. It is a yellow sponge shaped like a rectangular straight parallelepiped

boca juniors

BOCA JUNIORS Football team created by Italian emigrants in the Bica neighborhood in Buenos Aires, Argentina, which is why they are nicknamed the Xeneises (Genoese in xenoeise dialect). Textually means the young men or children of Boca.

boca oreja

BOCA OREJA catalinismo (mouth orella) which is equivalent to the Castilian expression of mouth to mouth .

bocante

BOCANTE Probable spelling error by BACANTE or bocaRTE . See BACANTE or BOCARTE , as applicable

bocarte

BOCARTE In Spain : boquerón , very esteemed blue fish, especially when salted, in which case it is called anchovy, those that are packaged in oil. It is between 15 and 20 cm long.

boccia

BOCCIA paralympic sport accepted in 1984 and which is based on the game of bocce, or bocce in Italian

bochita

BOCHITA diminutive of BOCHA, bowling ball

bochornosos

BOCHORNOSO's plural BOCHORNOSO that causes embarrassment, which is embarrassing

bochófilo

BOCHÓFILO amateur or game lover of [E]BOCHAS

bod

BOD slang by BODY , body Some synonyms , words or similar expressions can be body , body

bodega aurrera

BODEGA AURRERÁ 'aurrera' is a word of Basque origin that means forward. in Mexico: self-service stores in Mexico that were originally owned by the company Almacenes Aurrera; later of Grupo Cifra and currently of the Mexican subsidiary of Walmart.

bodegas

BODEGAS plural . See BODEGA .

bofetazo

SLAP slap, blow to the cheek ckn ka nano open

boho

BOHO anglican contraction of bohemian homeless, or bohemian homeless. In Spanish it is a dress style called boho chic, poor but elegant. It's not a fad because it doesn't go out of style.

boho chic

BOHO CHIC DE Bohemian and chic elegant fashion style that recalls hippie fashion but with elegance. Relaxed, original comfortable and elegant. In decoration is called the combination of different styles with some carefreeness.

boiserie

BOISSERIE from French bois, wood or forest, is a wooden furniture made up of one or more panels that are recessed to the wall. The boisseries were very fashionable in 17th- and 18th-century France where full desks were covered in mansions and palaces for elegance and borrowing.

bojillo

BOJILLO thalia geniculata aquatic surface plant that grows in lagoons, especially in tropical wetlands in southeastern Mexico, where it covers large bodies of water : popal, cheese leaf in Veracruz, silver in Tabasco. huasteco tau zimalon. In Colombia : silver or bijao . In irrigation channels and the like it is only considered a weed.

bolas

Plural ball BALLS

boldos

BOLDOS pl . of BOLDO, medicinal herb from which infusions are made. It is of Chilean origin and widely used in the population to purify the body, cure insomnia and when you have liver problems. In Chile it is also consumed as a bajative, in sachets or in dried leaves, substitute for tea or coffee.

boleada

BOLEADO in Argentina: f. spanish for a person who is dizzy or lightheaded Some synonyms, words or similar expressions can be dizzy, lightheaded

boletus edulis

BOLETUS EDULIS and BOLETUS PINICOLA are fungi that were introduced in Chile in plantations of radiata pine, the species most cultivated in the country. Its addition produces positive effects on plantations.

bolis

BOLIS Flavored ice that is consumed mainly in hot areas as sweet or to mitigate heat. The idea is to consume it while the ice thaws. In many regions they are sold at home and simply packed in a plastic bag, tied up and filled with water. 2 . Name given to the pen, pen, sphero, spherographic or pen.

boloencierro

BOLOENCIERRO It is a conception of animalists that is proliferating as a sport. it is about replacing the bulls with a huge ball about 2 meters high and that is made to run through the streets and other places, not being entirely safe since there have been injured people, even mayors of some communes. There is talk of replacing the Bulls of the San Fermin with these balls. It has become more popular with the appearance in Forbes magazine as one of the most interesting modern sports.

boloencierro

BOLOENCIERRO It is a conception of animalists that is proliferating as a sport. it is about replacing the bulls with a huge ball about 2 meters high and that is made to run through the streets and other places, not being entirely safe since there have been injured people, even mayors of some communes. There is talk of replacing the Bulls of the San Fermin with these balls. It has become more popular with the appearance in Forbes magazine as one of the most interesting modern sports.

bols

BOLS marca de licores que posee el registro mas antiguo del mundo

bolsa de aire

AIRBAG is the literary translation from the English of AIR BAG safety bags that, are inflated and deployed on the occasion of a serious accident, for the physical protection of passengers

bolsicona

BOLSICONA In Ecuador : In Quito it was called bolsicona to a blouse or shirt : cotton with scaly edges in red or blue cotton. Over time the Bolsicona has only remained its folkloric and original image rather than its real presence in society.

bolsin taurino

BOLSON TAURINO event created by the ranchers of Salamanca in the famous Modern café, pars help the trunks that came without resources and that were interested in bulls. They instituted a bullfighting contest and the winner participated in the bullring for the first time, uninterrupted since then, in 1956. Other ranchers were incorporated over time and today is part of the annual carnival.

bolsonarización

BOLSONARIZATION conversion towards ideology and politics promoted by the President of Brazil, Jair Bolsonaro.

boltonista

BOLTONISTA In favor of the doctrine of Bolton or his person 2 . Fan of the football club Bolton Wanderers, of the city of Bolton, in greater Manchester, England, team of the English fourth division. 3 . Fan of Michael Bolton, popular American singer of the 80s and early 90s

boluda

BOLUDA In Argentina : sonsa, stupid, stupid

bomba de humo

HUMO PUMP bombs that detonate producing lots of colorful smoke, which are used as entertainment in marriages, parties and public shows.

bomberazo mexicano

BOMBERAZO In Mexico : Figuratively, emergency situation in a job that demands immediate action . In Chile we call it fire.

bombillas

BULBS pl . of BULB 1 . Metal tube with which the infusion of yerba mate or other liquids is aspirated. 2 . Light bulb to illuminate a room.

bombita

Dlminutive BOMB OF BOMBA Small pump . Figuratively, something that can cause sensation, commotion.

bombones

SWEETS of CHOCOLATE Small chocolate sweet, usually stuffed with liquor or truffle.

bonacion

BONACION spelling error for donation (blood)

bondada

KINDNESS probable error by KINDNESS or FLOCK

bonega

Esperanto BONEGA Excellent, Superb

bonete de cura

CURE BONNET vulgarism by MITRA

bong

BONG device to smoke marijuana buds without having to use paper or tobacco.

bonifiable

BONUS that can be rewarded, you can receive a bonus

bonito negro

BEAUTIFUL BLACK Person with dark skin and beautiful appearance. 2 . Saying of an object (black) : what is attractive or beautiful : Look at that pretty (dress, shoes , bra) black

bono verde

GREEN BONUS economic award to encourage green investment and implementation of sustainable ecological policies, reducing the carbon footprint and great resilience to climate change.

book

BOOK anglicism which means book, album or folder in which models present their photographs to advertising and model agencies when they apply for a job.

bookcrossing

BOOKCROSSING or BC is the originally Swiss practice of leaving in public places, called "the jungle" books already read for other readers to take and continue to do the same. The Swiss, contrary to what might be thought, are very socialist and, when they are in enclosures such as hotels, leave the books already read, which are stored on shelves for a new passenger to take. They do the same with cards, bicycles, toys and other reusable items.

booker

BOOKER Anglicism by Bet taker . From the English book, book, the booker took the bets and wrote in a notebook, and after the event proceeded to the payments to the winners. 2 . Person who hires artists for theater, film or show companies. 3 . An accountant, someone who carries ledgers.

booklet

BOOKLET Anglicism by Brochure . Stapled notebook with informational printed material on a specific topic.

booster

BOOSTER pressure amplifier, amplifier, voltage, sound amplifier

bootcamp

BOOTCAMP is an accelerated, intensive and practical learning process aimed at obtaining a specific job, usually in the area of programming. They consider the practical situations of the day to day and do not worry about generalities.

booth

BOOTH in English, cabin, cubicle, sleeping compartment. 2 . Position, position, work, place.

booze

BOOZE slang for alcoholic beverage Some synonyms, words or similar expressions may be drink, drink

borbollito

BORBOLLITO m . DIMINUTIVE OF BORBOLLO small air bubble that usually forms when boiled.

borderó

Bordered box office, total collection of an event for seat sale.

boriquillo

BORIQUELLO spelling error by BORRIQUELLO

boris

BORIS Catholic meaning, typical of God. Russian origin, baris, strong, violent.

borracheras

BORRACHERAS plural of BORRACHERA State of intemperance, action and effect of consuming too much alcohol, reaching a state of important intoxication.

borsalino

BORSALINO 1 . Company and business of Alessandria, Italy of renown that invented the short wing hat 2 . Fedora hat, invented by the company Borsalino, and which is also called by that name.

bosconara

BOSCONARA in gastronomy: sauce and recipe of spaguettis based on mushrooms. The guanciale (de guancia, carrillo in Italian) of the typical carbonara is replaced with mushroom tickets that are sautéed in squares that are stirred in a bowl with the cheese and egg yolks before placing the pasta on top. Then grate pepper and black truffle on the plate.

bosforo

BOSFORO spelling error by Bosphorus, of the bosphorus grigo, ESTRECHO, originally name of the Istanbul Strait, which separates Europe from Asia, and which connects the Black Sea with the Marmara Sea.

bota de oro

GOLDEN BOTA award given annually by the European Sports Media to the European football player who scores the most weighted goals. FIFA, for its part, awards the GOLDEN BALL award each year to the best player in the world.

botanófilo

PLANT-loving BOTANOPHILE

botar la piedra

BOTAR LA PIEDRA in Chile : Having sex after a long abstinence.

botarate o botaratas

BOTARATE Said of a person : What irresponsibly waste money. In Colombia, Peru and Venezuela BOTARATA

botarse desde lo alto

BOUNCE FROM THE TOP launch something or launch from an elevated position. 2 in Spain : bounce (something) by launching it from an elevated height.

botellón

BOTELLON in Spain: at the end of the twentieth century the custom of gathering, especially young people, on public roads, was seeded, which became a bottle.

botiguer botiguera

BOTIGUER BOTIGUERA in Argentina : See BOTIGUERO

botilito

BOTILITO Thermo metallic to conserve the heat or cold of beverages.

botines

PLURAL BOTINES OF BOTÍN Shoes to make sports, half-top shoes.

botones

BOTONESS spanish for bellboy

boulangerie

BOULANGERIE is the French word for BAKERY

boutique spa

BOUTIQUE SPA Exclusive level hydrotherapy enclosure. Spa is an acronym for salus per aqua. The boutique qualifier eliminates the Share Company alternative.

bovarismo

BOVARISM 1 . It is understood by bovarism or Madame Bovary syndrome to the permanent state of personal dissatisfaction produced by the contrasts between her desires and aspirations and the frustrating reality she lives. It usually refers to the sentimental and loving realm.

bovedana

BOVEDANA native to Bóveda, villa, parroquia and municipio esoañol , located in the province of Lugo in the autonomous commune of Galicia. It belongs to the region of the Land of Lemos. Population was 1503 people in 2018 and 1481 in 2019.

bovedano

BOVEDANO from the town of Bóveda de Toro, in Zamora, Spain 2. Relative to the Bovedana Sports Club 3. C supporter. D. Bovedana

box office

BOX OFFICE box office, ticket office 2 . Used to signal the total ticket sales of a film, play, show or performance.

box to box

BOX TO BOX anglicism by portico to portico; quality of a midfielder who can, thanks to his great energy, play well on one field as in the other, in defense and in attack. He's got lungs to run the whole court down the center lane.

boyish

BOYISH Anglicism of BOY, child. Child

boyscout

BOYSCOUT actually BOY SCOUT, anglicism by BOY EXPLORER.

bozalandia

BOZALANDIA in Colombia: in the commune of Bosa, Bogota there is a neighborhood called Iceland, which is named as Bosa Iceland, and can be called Bosalandia or Bozalandia. The same goes for the Bosa Iceland square. In Chile: the architect Fernando Boza has developed the urbanization of much of a sector of the Metropolitan Region called Lo Boza, by the colonial estate of Santa Teresa de Lo Boza, where Manuel Robles was born, author of the lyrics of the first national song and the philanthropist Matías Cousiño, and which covers part of three large communes of Santiago: Quilicura, Pudahuel and Renca, all close to Arturo Merino Benítez International Airport. I haven't heard the area named with that nickname, but it would be very appropriate to call it a residential area of thousands of houses.

bóvedas

BÓVEDAS plural of BÓVEDA

brabant

BRABANT belonging to or relating to the North Brabant or North Brabant, one of the 12 provinces of holland. Like all provinces, it is governed by a commissioner or commissioner appointed by the monarch and a legislative chamber elected by universal suffrage.

brackets

BRACKETS anglicism by dental FRENILLOS

braggie

BRAGGIE anglicism derived from brag , presume; it is about the fashion of uploading personal photographs to social networks in order to show off beauty, partner, wealth or anything that can provoke envy.

brainstorming

BRAINSTORMING RAIN OF IDEAS, business technique to solve complex situations, in which a diverse group of people meet, the leader raises a problem, and each member proposes solutions, no matter how crazy and crazy they might be. Ideas can sometimes seem very bad or very good to the one who poses them, but the group process enhances their improvement and the creation of new solutions that jump to the table when listening to the first ones. Shocking results are achieved when the group is creative or experienced.

brand day

BRAND DAY anglicism per brand day; specific day when you leave all the advertising space for a single brand for a special BRANDING promotion

brand manager

BRAND MANAGER textually brand manager . Marketing professional who is responsible for maximizing the image of the brand and the company that owns it.

branding

BRANDING anglicism derived from BRAND, brand that advertising agencies use for the work of imposing a brand on the market.

braquilexifobia

BRAQUILEXIFOBIA Aversion to short words . It's an anonymity of macrolexiphobia

brasalete

BRASALETE spelling error by BRACELET , jewel that is ported on the arm or on the wrist

bravazo

BRAVAZO Very brave, very wild, very fierce

bráctea

BRÁCTEA Flower flakes that normally envelop it and do not perform photosynthetic functions, but serve as protection of the flower or inflorescence.

break-point

BREAK POINT Anglicism by BREAK POINT . In tennis, point to play in that, if the recipient wins, the server loses its service and the point. If the break point occurs when you are playing the point that can define the set you also talk about set point, and if you define the match, in addition to game point or match point

breakdance

BREAKDANCE Bboying is a social dance that was born in the 60s in the neighborhoods of Bronx and Brooklin, New York, and that is part of the hip hop culture, along with graffiti, rap and E]djing. They encourage creativity and individual originality. - Dancers freely perform existing movements, based on turns with the head or back resting on the ground, and improvise new ones, so the dance is in constant development. Some synonyms, words or similar expressions may be bboying breakdown

BREAKING English word meaning break, physical or psychological break

brecha de género

GENDER GAP difference (positional or salary) between men and women

brecha digital

DIGITAL GAP Separation experienced by the digital illiterate people of the community that is accustomed to the use of computer science, the Internet and social networks. Existing decommunication between Internet users and those not trained to do so.

brecha salarial

WAGE GAP difference of salary received by one group versus another, in particular between men and women, for the same position in the same working conditions.

bredo

BREDO plant probably native to southern Europe and spread throughout the world except Oceania. Native plant.

bredos

BREDOS, bred plural. Portuguese word meaning bleado . See BLEDO

breiquear

BREIQUEAR from English to brake, brake. Stop, stop, brake. Used in Mexico

breñadito

Diminutive BREADITO of BREA OR BREAEL place or land between rocks populated by unproductive plants and herbs that hinder agriculture

brequear una computadora

BREQUEAR A COMPUTER barbarism from English to brake break, break. It means breaching access to a computer by violating its keys and having unauthorized access to the information it contains.

brete

BRETE in Argentina and Chile : mess, difficulty, rush : putting someone in a heat is putting them in trouble. In Cuba : gossip . Those old heathers have a great time gossiping. In the field: separation between two stakes through which cattle are passed.

brew

Brew verbatim ferment, brew . Colloquially, beer. Some synonyms, words or similar expressions can be beer, chela brexhaustion

BREXHAUSTION anglicism derived from BREXIT, in turn contraction of BRITISH and EXIT, exit (from the European community) and EXHAUSTION, exhaustion.

brexit blando

Brexit is a contraction of the Anglo-Saxon British terms (British, to) and Exit (exit). The soft Brexit is at the exit of the United Kingdom of the Community European Agreement approved by Parliament, so that the deterioration of the economy, damage to the livelihood of products and services, the reduction of the mobility of people and security of stay of foreigners in the United Kingdom is the minimum possible.

brexiteer

BREXITEER anglicanism per person who participates in or supports the process of separating Britain from the European Community. Derived from BREXIT British Exit shrinkage, or British output.

brexiter

BREXITER Such person or institution : That it is in the part of the withdrawal of Great Britain from the European Community . 2 . Action or effect leading to Britain's departure from the EC.

bribonadas

BRIBONADAS plural OF BRIBONADA diablura, evil

bricos

BRICOS Bricos-Mayoreo Eléctrico de Monterrey Mexican company leader in the distribution of electrical material, lighting, distribution equipment, power and automation.

bridones

BRIDONES pl . of BRIDÓN , small flange

briefing

BRIEFING anglicism by INFORMATION SESSION comes from the term BRIEF brief , and constitutes a meeting to provide information or guidelines. 2 . Action to inform or instruct (a , someone)

brigada patriótica

PATRIOTic BRIGADE group of Spanish PP weather police. This camariila caused spectacularity because he was imputed in the Kitchen case, of espionage to the ex-treasurer of the PP Luis Bárcenas.

brigido

WAR (and not briganded) In Chile : youthful language, double chilling . It comes from frigid and means it freezes twice as cold as frigid. Consequently, TRIGID In Chile : three times chilling .

british

BRITISH Anglicanism by British, in accordance with the idiosyncrasy of the English.

brícos

BRÍCOS Spelling Error by BRICOS . Bricos-Mayoreo Eléctrico de Monterrey, a leading Mexican company in the distribution of electrical equipment, lighting, distribution equipment, power and automation broder

broder youthful language of English brother, brother

bronceosis

BRONCEOSIS disease generated by the accumulation of bronze in the human body 2 . In Argentina : Psychological pathology that young Argentine doctors have, prisoners of wanting to have a bronze effigy that immortalizes them because they look infallible and of the utmost importance. When bronze reaches their brains, they no longer see or hear; tanning prevents them from walking hastily, though they do so majestically. Nothing is urgent or valuable, except your time. In the Chilean bestiary we call them diostors.

broncospasmo

BRONCOSPASM syncope by BRONCOESPASM, contraction of the airways affecting the lungs and preventing normal breathing.

bronde

BRONDE popillary hair dyeing trend in 2016. It comes from brunette's contraction, brown hair, and Blone's, blond hair.

bronxite

BRONXITE anglicism courtesy of the residents of the Bronx neighborhood, one of the 5 of Manhattan, and the only one in which its largest area is not on an island. . The origin is from the first to settle in the place, Jonas Bronck. It has more than 1 . 500 . 000 inhabitants .

brotes

PLURAL BROTES OF BROTE See OUTBREAK

brother

BROTHER of the English brother, brother . Juvenile slang to name a close person

bruja venezuela

WITCH (in) VENEZUELA in Venezuela: Person who performs dishonorable, inappropriate and false actions. 2 . delictual language to designate the person who abuses bad speaking of other absent persons. 3 . Traitor , person who betrays another .

brut nature

BRUT NATURE category of champagne, foaming or cava. It is called BRUT or dry when it is less than 15 grs. sugar per liter, extra brut when you have less than 6 grs per liter Nature has no added sugar in your shipping liqueur.

brutacio

BRUTACIO (Tufnutt Laverne Thorston) dragon trainer belonging to the tribe of the Hairy Hooligans (or Furry Hooligans) and twin brother of Brutilda Torton. Part of the fictional universe of the film How to Train your Dragon

brutos

BRUTOS plural of BRUTO overwhelmed person, clumsy 2 . Person who treats brutally, very strongly to another 3. Big, unsytly animal, like the donkey brúsqueda

BrusqueDA BRSQUEDA

brúsquedo

Intense BRESQUEDO

bucara

BUCARA in guane languish means señor, sir MANGA MEANS casa, house. So, BUCARAMANGA means the masters house.

bucaramangara

BUCAEAMANGA £and not BUCARAMANGARA) a municipality in north Colombia, capital of the Santander department.

budoño

BUDOÑO and more correctly budoños, with s final, although singular It is the common name of two plants: Caucalis platycarpus/C] and Conium maculatum/C] . Annual thorny green plant, 10 to 40 cm tall, with rambling stems. Bi- or tri-pinnatisecta leaves, with narrow segments of sharp ends.

buen desayuno

GOOD BREAKFAST A first meal of the day with abundant and non frugal character.

buena evaluación

GOOD EVALUATION Good note, Good rating

buena madre

GOOD MOTHER 1 . Error by Buenamadre , Municipality and Spanish town in the province of Salamanca 2 . Various prayers and religious songs that invoke the Virgin Mary.

buena nota

GOOD NOTE Well rated, good evaluation

buena oferta

GOOD OFFER proposed business, sale or other type of deal or agreement, which assumes that the offeror is giving a better treatment than normal to the counterparty.

buenardo

BUENARDO In Argentina, term, derived from good, popularized by coscu, which means good, very good.

buenas

GOOD plural is used as a synonym for news, replacing the term tácito : What good brings me?

buenhumorado

GOODHUMORATED in good spirits, cheerful

buenote

BUENOTE very good, appetizing, attractive

bufidos

BUFIDOS , plural of bufido . See BUFIDO

buggie

BUGGIE anglicism by beetle, derived from beetle bug by the fact that they are bodyless cars originally derived from the Volkswagen beetle. Vehicles for sports use, sometimes 4x4 of great strength to compete in sand, hills and complex places. Not to be confused with boogie, which means moving the skeleton buggy

BUGGY anglicism derived from BUG, beetle to designate a small motor vehicle usually opened by the roof and sometimes without doors. 2 . A folding car with wheels to transport infants and younger infants.

buhos cornudos

BUHOS CORNUDOS spelling error by cuckolded owls, plural of BUHO CORNUDO

buitre americano

BLACK BUITRE See BLACK AMERICAN BUITRE

buitre americano cabecirrojo

AMERICAN BLACK-headed red-headed VULTURE cathartes aura cathartiforme bird of the family cathartidae with red head and black body is the most widespread vulture in America, from Canada to Tierra del Fuego, in Chile. It feeds almost exclusively on carcasses and it is common to see them flying over an animal that faints.

buitre pavo

TURKEY VULTURE cathartes aura See AMERICAN RED-HEADED VULTURE

buitres negros

Black vultures plural black vulture

bujarro

BUJARRO in Spain : of the caló , bujendi ; man who is attracted to people of the same sex.

bullet journal

BULLET JOURNAL anglicism meaning bullet diary. It is a wide range agenda that plans and records daily elements of diverse interest such as list of things to do or buy, names or lyrics of songs, places, travel stories, favorite phrases, ideas, maps of places, transport lines, words of other languages or of your own that you want to remember and use, news, reminders, accounts payable or receivable, drawings, lists of people or things, codes, attributes of the car, cell phone, electrical equipment, motorcycle, boat, birthdays, condolences, anniversaries. Books and movies to read and watch.

bullying laboral

BULLYING LABORAL harassment of a person within work by colleagues or the company. Harassment bullying social

SOCIAL BULLYING permanent and non-constant attack towards a person through social networks. It becomes, at times, of such seriousness that it leads to suicide.

bullyn

BULLYN orthographic error by BULLYING, anglicism derived from bull, bull; harassing or disturbing insists and humiliatingly a companion, tore him, abusing him.

bullyng

BULLYNG spelling error by BULLYING

buquet

BUQUET (the correct spelling is bouquet) 1 . Aroma of a wine 2 . Flower bouquet.

burbuja inmobiliaria

REAL ESTATE BURBUJA rises outside normal levels of inflation in the real estate buying and selling area due to speculative factors or low housing credit rates.

burbuja tecnológica

TECHNOLOGICAL BUBBLE explosion on the stock exchange of dotcom shares, which had in 1997 related to technology. In 2020 there was a second technological bubble, more stable than the first when online sales acquired very important volumes compared to history.

burillo

BURILLO In Costa Rica and Honduras : Burío Generic name of various types of trees from which its bark is extracted to make ropes.

burlesque

BURLESQUE 1 . Dramatic or literary work that focuses on burlesque and ironic satire, vulgarizing what is considered worthy or dignifying the prolific. 2 . Kind of variety show focused on comedy of mistakes, vaudeville and humor. 3 Theater already disappeared very popular in Santiago de Chile, where magazines, spicy comedies, striptease and related were presented.

burn out

BURN OUT Anglicism by BURNING . Figured out, an option or business may have been terminated.

burradas

BURRADAS plural of BURRADA , nonsense

burrata

BURRATA fresh cheese originating in Apulia produced from cow's or buffalo's milk, of spun pasta (in Italian, pasta filata) and of pear or bag shape, similar to that of mozzarella. The interior texture is much softer and filamentous, similar to that of butter cheese.

burro de dos patas

TWO PATAS DONKEY Expanding human species, very dangerous. They are human beings who have vague or no culture, head harder than a stone, but who believe themselves to know everything and do not accept discussion about it. At first they are entertained because it is easy to tantrums them and have fun with them, but soon they get bored and they are a nudes, hard to get them off. It's an allegory to indicate that you're as dumb as donkeys, but differentiated just by standing like humans

burrsa

BURRSA spelling error by BURRA

bursatilizacion

BURSATILIZATION spelling error by BURSATILIZATION

bursatilización

BURSATILIZATION bring a trading company to the stock exchange. Turn a private empresa into a public limited company, shareholders.

bus cama

BUS CAMA intercity or international bus, in which the seats have space and a mechanism to lower the backrest and advance the seat to be able to sleep comfortably. They have facilities such as bathroom, blankets and bar.

bus salón-cama

BUS LOUNGE-CAMA road transport vehicle consisting of seats that are converted into beds, or directly bunk beds to rest or sleep. It can have, additionally, a place to eat or be, in which case the name of living room is more own.

buscar cinco pies al gato

LOOK FOR FIVE FEET TO THE CAT see difficulties when the thing is simple , find complications where there are none . See everything more difficult or complex than it is. Some synonyms, words or similar expressions may be to search for the fifth leg 40, to cat 41, buscar dolicosefalo

SEARCH FOR DOLICOSEPHALO See DOLICOCEPHALON

buscar en diccionario

SEARCH IN DICTIONARY Search alphabetically a term in a lexicon that contains all the approved words of a language, to know its meaning or, in bilingual dictionaries, to know the meaning of the term in another language (translate)

buscar las cinco patas al gato

LOOK FOR THE FIVE LEGS TO THE CAT see excessive complications in something that is simple, question too much, distrust too much. Some synonyms, words, or similar expressions may be looking for problems where there aren't, distrusting too much

buscarle tres cinco pies al gato

FIND THE CAT THREE FIVE FEET. Grammatical error . The correct phrase is TO FIND THE FIVE PATS TO THE CAT. Ezpress denoting that things are getting more complicated than they really are. It's looking for something that doesn't exist or where nothing exists.

buscarle tres pies al gato

FIND THREE FEET TO THE CAT expression to say that you are being too exaggerated, seeing complications or strange things where there are no ones. It is most used (and more logical) TO FIND THE FIFTH PAW TO THE CAT, a leg that does not exist.

buses

BUSES pl . bus

busgo

BUSGO in Mexico : jargon to name someone who eats everything he sees. Glutton.

bushelings

BUSHELING slag or pure steel residue not exceeding 30 cms. in no dimension, including waste of newly manufactured material. According to American standards of the waste recycling industries busheling cannot include waste chassis from old vehicles or mudguards or stock bumpers.

business coach

BUSINESS COACH verbatim, business coach, person who advises on leadership and competence of teams to companies.

business developer

BUSINESS DEVELOPER of English business developer . Person responsible for making new contacts for the company and creating the conditions for it to carry out new business.

businessman

BUSINESSMAN anglilicism by BUSINESS MAN, entrepreneur.

bustaca

BUSTACA 1 . Woman with prominent bust 2 . Spelling error by BUTACA, theater seat or cinema.

busted

BUSTED if it refers to the law, it means ARRESTED, but if it is something familiar it is a metaphor, that the father can tell the son when he finds out that he did something wrong

buzz

BUZZ anglilicism, literally humming.

búfalo acuático

WATER BUFFALO from Southeast Asia which is now wild and domesticated in many regions of the planet. It's usually called CARABAO

búfalo de pantano

SWAMP BUFFALO See WATER BUFFALO

búho cornudo

BUHO CORNUDO an owl that has no horns, but its ears are so long that it gives that impression.

bypasseo

BYPASSEO derived from the English BYPASS, detour, alternative path; action of generating a new path or skipping (something or someone). 2 . In medicia: surgery to create new arterial pathways that irrigate the heart c.

C. Abbreviation of circa that in Latin means approximate, approximately, near . For example, when the exact date of birth is not certain, (c . 1920-2020) or a death toll (c . 50 . 000 . 000) Some synonyms, words or similar expressions may be close to, approximately in ,

caballar

HORSE RELATIVE OR BELONGING TO HORSES

caballero andante

WALKING KNIGHT. A person who, in the Middle Ages, walked the paths of the counties on horseback, often accompanied by a pawn imparting justice and defending the needy. They became part of the hosts of a feudal lord and participated in the crusades. They formed groups of gentlemen called orders. Example , Order of the Templars .

caballos

Caballo Equine's plural CABALLOS

cabecear un barco

CABECEAR a ship move alternately to port and starboard, alluding to the movement of denial made with the head. Bandearse, wobbles.

cabecirojo

VULTURE HEAD See BUITRE AMERICAN HEAD , URUBU Some synonyms, words or similar expressions may be turkey vulture , [e]red-headed American vulture

cabellon

CABELLON In Barranquilla , Colombia : Abundant hair

cabellos

HAIR pl . of HAIR, hair

cabellos como hilos de plata

HAIR like threads of silver, euphemism for represent a greying hair

cabellote

CABELLOTE In Colombia Mane, abundant hair

cabellón

CABELLON in Colombia: in Barranquillas, with abundant hair

cabeza de bala

BULLET HEAD nickname that received a young man who had the skull in the form of an artillery bullet in Santiago de Chile. He was driving a liquefied gas vehicle and having fumes he went to the bencinera. When the employee opened the hood the car exploded and flew 10 meters to hit a wall and die. His wife and daughter, who were in the back seat, saved unharmed. 2 . Bullet poto , flat surface .

cabeza de pescado

FISH HEAD in Chile: stupidity, meaningless thing

cabeza de tortuga

TORTOISE HEAD 1 . Music 2 . Said of a person : That he moves his neck frequently because of a tic or physiological problem.

cabeza rota

BROKEN HEAD head injury or skull fracture

cabezas

HEADS, 1. Thinking beings in. Thinking heads 2. Number of cattle or won eg. Head of cattle 3. E.g. skulls. Fossil heads 4. Upper and prominent part of any part, element or artifact. In. Head nail, hammer, etc.

cabinero

CABINERO person who rents or maintains the cabins (to move clothes, for example)

cabra tumbamontaña

CABRA TUMBAMONTA goat that defies gravity and walks through vertical walls in search of salt.

cabrita

CABRITA Use in plural PALOMITS DE MAÍZ or PALOMITAS Inflated, salted or sugary corn .

cabritas de maíz

CORN CABRITAS Roasted and popped corn rosette.

cabritos

Kid 1. Boy, boy, in general very young. 2. Euphemism for pointing dismissively to an adult 3. The goat breeding

cabuya

CABUYA fiber threads of American agave with which gualaceo cloths are manufactured, in Ecuador.

cacatonia

cacatonia is incorrectly written, and should be written as catatonia being its meaning:
Psychomotor syndrome that occurs in certain forms of schizophrenia, characterized especially by the negativism, the opposition, catalepsy and gestural stereotypes.

cacaztle

CACAZTLE cacaxtle s m 1 Skeleton of vertebrate animals 2 Species of rectangular drawer, of rods, which serves to load something on the back, similar to the huacal 3 Skeleton saddle, when it looks bad and is deteriorated 4 Volume measurement, equivalent to the amount of goods that fit in that drawer, variable according to the regions of the country.

cache

CACHA In Chile is a sexual encounter, the act of fornicating.

cachama negra

CACHAMA NEGRA species of fish of the family Serrasalmidáceas . It lives in the Orinoco and Araucania basin.

cachanos

Cachano is a devil

cachanos

cachanos is incorrectly written and should be written as catch us being its meaning:
Catch us derived from the verb to catch, to be neologism has something. Catch us would be a barbarism, imperatively reflective, indicating order of note or warning to a third of what a group is, or is to be made.

cacharra

CACHARRO, 1 . Motorized vehicle that disarm old and ramshackle. 2 . Vessel for transporting liquids, and in particular milk 3. Any old thing.

cachay

Cachay jargon deformation of cachai, vulgarism by? Do you realize that? Some synonyms, words or similar expressions may be, you know? , cachai? Handle? Get?

cachera

CACHERA In Chile and other South American countries, a woman who is addicted to sexual intercourse, or CACHAS without being a prostitute.

cachibú

CACHIBÚ part of the title and chorus of the children's song "of Cachibú de Cachivaca", of the program The Clowns of the Tele, whose first of the 9 srrofas says thus : I have an uncle named Mr. Chips, is a poet from head to toe, It has a poem, something fantasticular, That day and night repeats it non-stop. Cachibú and cachivaca mean nothing.

cachipay

CACHIPAY fruit of a palm, with origin in the Pacific Coast of Central and South America. It occurs in large clusters with drupes about 1 to 2 cms in diameter. They are rich in omega-3 and omega-6, regenerators of brain neurons and the nervous system. It is a balanced and powerful food.

cachirulos

CACHIRULOS , plural of cachirulo See cachirulo

cachufleta

CACHUFLETA In Argentina The vagina, the slut, the slut

cachumbos

Plural cachumbo CACHUMBOS . See CACHUMBO

cachurero

CACHURERO It is said of those who gather and accumulate many used items and of dubious utility and value, called vulgarly.

cacicazgo

CACICAZGO Authoritarian leadership, head of a group of persons exercised with little or no participation or consultation of the same. It comes from chief Toqui or head of an indigenous tribe. It can have positive connotation as well.

cacicazgos

CACICAZGOS plural CACICAZGO See CACICAZGO[/E

cacomistle

CACOMISTLE Bassariscus sumichrasti The carnivorous mammal species of the procyonid family. Its size is medium to small, about 42 cms. light brown and with a very long tail, with typical dark rings

cacon

CACON In Dominican Republic : It has a very large head, or that is a hard head, which does not understand . IN Uruguay : said of a person or thing : It works badly .

cacon

CACON In Dominican Republic : It has a very large head, or that is a hard head, which does not understand . IN Uruguay : said of a person or thing : It works badly .

caderita

Diminutive hip CADERITA, from Latin cathedra, 'seat, rear', each of the two parts formed by the upper bones of the pelvis, under the waist of the skeleton.

caderota

CADEROTA Wide Hip

caemal

CAEMAL Spelling Error by CAE MAL . See CAER MAL

caer dar de bruces

CAER DE BRUCES wrong adverbial locution for FALLING FROM BRUCES or CAER DE BRUCES

caer en saco roto

FALLING ON DEAF EARS is useless, talking to the wall

caer mal

CAER MAL said of a person : to be unpleasant : John I like it wrong . 2 . Said of a food or dish : chili I like it wrong.

caerse algo de por su peso

DROP SOMETHING FOR YOUR WEIGHT MISTAKE FOR FALLING (SOMETHING) BY YOUR OWN WEIGHT.
expression to indicate that no additional arguments are required to refute an assertion

caerse de bruces

CAERSE OF BRUCES adverbial locution by falling head-on, face down, mouth. Antonym: falling on your back, face up

cafe-concert

COFFEE-CONCERT galicism to refer to a venue that is, at the same time, a café and a, concert hall.

café negruzco

BLACKISH BROWN DARK BROWN. You can also the color of a cup of preoarado coffee or the coffee bean

caffarena

CAFFARENA surname of Arab origin, well known in Chile for having a factory with that name that produces nylon stockings, socks and panties.

cafoto

CAFOTO 1 . African shrub 2. Cloca, Sentina, septic well

cafotos

CAFOTO plural CAFOTO 1 . African shrub 2. Bilge

cagar a pedos

CAGAR A PEDOS Seriously insult a person for something he has done wrong : We gave a razor to the French teacher and he fucked us. We didn't know it was a lampiño, cagarse por la patilla

FOR THE SIDEBURN In Spain: youth jargon, go churrete. Having a violent diarrhea,. The real expression is TO GO FOR THE PIN OR GO FOR THE PAW DOWN.

cagazón

CAGAZÓN shit, great failure, error or failure of proportions, action of much damage

cagazón

CAGAZÓN shit, great failure, error or failure of proportions, action of much damage

cago

CAGO first singular person of the verb CAGAR , defecar , obrar , hacer caca

caicena

CAICENA Rio de Almendimilla , Cordoba , Spain

caicuse

CAIC USE (and not caicuse) use : CAIC the acronym Comparative Analysis by Independent Contrast . CAIC and AIC (Akaike Information Criterion) are techniques for selecting models and esradical inferences. Some synonyms, words or similar expressions may be comparative analysis by independent contrasts, acci

caipirinha

CAIPIRINHA Typical Brazilian cocktail prepared with cachaza, lemon or lime, sugar and ice. It differs from caipiroska in that the former is obtained from sugar cane, while this is made from vidka. A third similar cocktail, caipirissima, is made from dark rum.

cais

CAIS in Chile : 1 . Support Center for Social Insertion, a body under the Prisons department of the Ministry of Justice. 2 . Toilet and Integral Services Company, in Santiago. 3 . Comprehensive Health Care Center, in Santiago.

caída del catre

CATRE' FALL, female CATRE CAIDO . I remember when I was young I was transferred to talca hospital with a closed ECT after an accident. The next day the stretcher enters the common room on a third floor and collects bacinicas and throwing the contents out the window, without even looking out. In the face of my surprise and recrimination he says to me : I do it because my mom told me that as a boy I fell from the cot and that's why I am like this (silly). Said of a person : What is unsotelligent. Metaphor for the cases of babies that allegedly fell from the mudador and hit the head, leaving with chronic sequelae.

caídas

CAÍDA plural FALLS

caído del catre

CALYTE OF THE CATRE Person who lacks a grain for the choclo, silly, without many lights. It was assumed that when he was a baby he fell out of the mute or the bed and permanently damaged the brain.

caja de recompensas

REWARD BOX f . In the world of video games, a reward box is a virtual item of a video game which can be opened to receive a random selection of various items from that game, ranging from coins and customization items for the player's avatar to equipment high impact on the game experience. such as spells, weapons, and armor. Some synonyms, words or similar expressions can be loot box, reward chest, loot box, loot crate, prize crate

cajas

BOXES plural of BOX 1 . Element designed to store or pack things. 2 . Drum 3 . Thorax : Bolivians are wide box due to insufficient oxygen at high altitudes

cajatorácica

CAJATORÁCICA error by BOX TORÁCICA

cajetuda

CAJETUDA In Argentina and Uruguay Vulgarism by vulva or large dew, woman with a large vulva . Figuratively, wicked and cruel woman

cajillero

CAJILLERO in Argentina : spelling error by VAJILLERO display case to store crockery

cajuil

CAJUIL fruit of tropical origin that progresses in our soils in the wild or semisilvestre state. She hails from Brazil; it was introduced in the sixteenth century by the Portuguese to the American tropics probably from India or Africa. Only one or more fruits ripen for each cluster of flowers. . . .

cajuiles

CAJUILES plural of CAJUILanacardium occidentale paprika-like fruit

cajú

CA.CA.anacardum occidentale , tropical fruit produced in Brazil and Venezuela. It is marketed internationally as cashews. The fleshy pseudofrute pulp is used as a refreshing drink. Cashew has medicinal properties as it contains a high percentage of unsaturated fats and allows to regulate cholesterol levels. It looks like a larger bean, curved like a kidney and a slightly greasy presence, exquisitely flavored.

calabaza blanca

WHITE CALABAZA It is a pumpkin that is grown only in China and in some neighboring countries. It is edible, good taste. IT's good for , make stuffed pumpkins. It belongs to the genus benincasa, of which it is the only known specimen.

calabazos

PUMPKINS misspelling by PUMPKINS . GIVE PUMPKINS , cast , send to change , dismiss

calambas

CALAMBAS error by CALAMBAC, from the French calambac, east from the Portuguese calambuco, and this in turn from the Malay kelembak or kelambak. m . Tree of the Far East, legume, with simple leaves, lanceolate, and flowers in erect, terminal clusters.

calambrazo

CALAMBRAZO a powerful involuntary and sudden muscle contraction, which usually occurs in the legs. One of the causes is the accumulation of lactic acid or toxins by excessive exercise as happens to footballers in the final minutes of a match. It also occurs in the abdominal area, especially in pregnant women. Dehydration and age are other triggering factors.

calambruca

CALAMBRUCA In Colombia : they give cramps in the cuckoo (head) 2 . Kind of twist or madness

calambuco

CALAMBUCO In Cuba : person who manifests a feigned or fanatical devotion, exaggerated. 2 . Tree of the family of gutifers, black trunk and white and aromatic flowers, from which is extracted a resin called Maria balm. Its wood is called Maria wood and is highly appreciated for its long duration. It contains four active substances: Guanadine, benzoic acid, isoguanadine and jacareubin .

calandria

CALANDRIA 1 . Passerine bird The male adults are orange and the females are pale yellow. In Argentina they are considered a symbol of freedom because they do not endure captivity and as soon as they are locked up they stop singing and die. In Chile they are known as tencas. 2 . Electric vehicle with similar physiognomy that the old floats or open stagecoaches, which in Chile we call victories and that are thrown in blood.

calandrias

CALANDRIAS plural of CALANDRIA

calar

CALAR in Chile: cut a piece to taste or test the quality

calcúlala

CALCÚLALA pronominal form of imperative mode , second person , singular of the verb Calcular[/] . Run a quant quantize calculation. Solve a mathematical operation.

calçotada

CALOTADA in Spain : traditional gastronomic festival, which has its origins in Valls and in the lands of Alt Camp, in Terragona. It is one of the most ingrained customs in Catalonia, where family and friends gather by the embers to roast the famous caloots.

caldererí

CALDERER- spelling error by CALDERERIA , manufacturing process of metal vessels to contain, transport and process solids, liquids and gases.

calentador eléctrico

ELECTRIC HEATER domestic appliance to heat water by using an electric heater, which replaces the traditional old teapot.

calentador solar

SOLAR HEATER element that produces electrical or caloric energy through the capture of solar energy by means of photovoltaic cells.

calentar motores

HEATING MOTORS Expression of car jargon that before the race start motors to bring them to the optimum operating temperature from the beginning. Allegory to point out that we need to prepare for something that will require more effort

calentarle la cabeza

WARM YOUR HEAD See YOUR HEAD WARM UP

calentarse por detrás

WARMING UP BACK in Chile: being a faggot

calentorra

HOT CALENTORRA, lustful

caligueba

CALIGUEBA spelling error by CALIGUEVA In Venezuela : Flojera, tedio , laitude , boredom, desgano .

caligueva

CALIGUEVA In Venezuela: slacker, tedio, desgano, asthenia, neglect in doing things

call-center

CALL-CENTER anglicism meaning CALL CENTER, where a set of telephonists or recorders receive calls from consumers and customers, those who are served on a scheduled and systematic basis, according to preset protocols, in an attempt to resolve doubts, problems, service needs, or emergencies.

callar las virtudes

CALL THE VIRTUES Be humble, decayed

callcenter

CALLCENTER anglicism error by CALL CENTER, call center.

calmado sereno

CALMADO SERENO application error for not having placed the comma between both words, which is why you discovered them as synonyms of TRANQUILO .

calmantes

PAINKILLERS plural of SOOTHING medication to reduce or suppress pain.

calzoncillos

UNDERPANTS, and not underwear, male inner garment that covers from the waist to the genitals and sometimes even the buttocks or legs.

cama crítica

CRITICAL BED bed suitable for Intensive Treatment to patients at vital risk. The dilemma of the last critical bed tells of the decision of who is given the bed and who is allowed to die, a situation that occurred repeatedly in Spain and Italy on the occasion of the coronavirus pandemic.

camalofote

CAMALOFOTE camalote, a species of plant that grows on the banks of rivers. It is native to freshwater from the warm regions of South America, the Silver region and the Amazon basin. Its abundance produces dramatic changes in wetlands.

camalofote

CAMALOTE (and not CAMALOFOTE) Aquatic plant that usually grows at river and lake banks, with long hollowed stems, superficial and submerged leaves, blue and white flowers and vesicles full of air to stand over the water and travel with the flows.

camara ojo

Camera Eye See EYE CAMERA

camaradas

COMRADES plural of CAMARADA companion (weapons, politician or other group)

camaroe

CAMAROE spelling error by CAMAROTE

camarón de cristal

CRYSTAL CAMARON The correct term is CRISTAL CAMARON . It is a type of shrimp native to Asia, inhabiting the slimy bottoms of rivers. It has the characteristic of having transparent shell, without pigmentation. That's why it's also called ghost shrimp. They have 5 to 10 cms. long and not simepre are transparent, which depends on the quality of the water, as there are greens, coffee and blues.

cambiar de acera

CHANGE FROM ACERA Go (to work) to the competition. Go to the other side of the counter. Switch from employer to employee, or vice versa. Some synonyms, words or similar expressions may be changing employers, switching to the enemy

cambiarle el agua a los frijoles

CHANGE THE WATER TO BEANS IN MEXICO AND CHILE: URINATE. In Spain it is said to change the water to the Canary Islands.

cambiemita

CHANGE in Argentina : person belonging to the political coalition Let's change, who led Mauricio Macri to the presidency, although it sounds more correct to me CHANGEMISTA. 2 . Coalition-sponsored policy Let's change 3. Eventually it could refer to the central Venezuelan political party or an adept at Changing Citizen Movement

cambios

Changes. 1 . Modifications 2 . Speed box of a motor vehicle 3 . Exchange of players in a team match.

camburito

CAMBUR's diminutive CAMBURITO, banana

camel

CAMEL camel

cameo

CAMEO 1 from English: in film and TV: extra or important person who appears briefly in a filming: Alfred Hitchcock made a cameo appearance in each of his films. 2 . CAMEO medallion with the profile effigy of a person, used as an ornament 3 . CAMEAR Action

camerata

CAMERATA Music Grouping 2 . In Renaissance Florence it was a group of intellectuals, poets and musicians, sponsored by Count Giovanni de Bardi, so it was called fiorentina camerata or Bardi camerata

camia

Socratea exorrhiza[/] Palm that supposedly walks . endemic to the rainforests of South and Central America. It measures between 15 and 20 meters in height and 12 centimeters in diameter, but can reach 25 meters in height and 16 centimeters in diameter. A popular myth says that it walks because it generates aerial roots of up to 3 meters that generate thorny bodies with which, supposedly it can move up to 20 cms. a year in search of better soils. Experts have determined that only the roots die and are changed for new ones, but the tron always remains in the same place

camicia nera

CAMICIA NERA 1 . Lowest grade of the Voluntary Militia for The Bational Security, counterpart of the common first class of the Navy (Royal Navy) and the conscript of arma dei Carabinieri. 2 . Women's and men's fashion for black blouses and shirts in 2020. 3 . One of the 19 destroyers of the Italian navy of the type Soldati 4. 1933 Italian film directed by Giovacchino Forzano.

camina por las nubes

WALK THROUGH THE NUBES walking dreaming, not being landed, being excited

caminando sobre una nube

WALKING ON A NUBE Feel that you are floating in the air, that by some drug, dizziness or naturally you feel loss of body weight. Between January 2014 and July 2016, various articles of walking bodies were disseminated ON THE NUBES, including a robot, God and a supposed being divine. 2 . There is a song by Victor Manuel of the year 2011, Walking on a Cloud.

campamento militar

MILITAR CAMP Where troops are stationed by erecting pavilions and tents, particularly when they go on the campaign trail or when they come to provide relief to the population.

campaneiro

CAMPANEIRO Portuguese voice for CAMPANERO 1 . The one who makes and melts bells 2. The one who rings the bells in the cathedral or in schools 3. Children's song : bell ringer, bell ringer plays now! Ring the bells, ring the bells, din dan don, din dan don.

campañã crucero

CAMPAIGN CRUISE spelling error by COMPANY CRUISE shipping company that offers pleasure trips through different seas and tourist ports of the world

campechanos

CAMPECHANOS plural of CAMPECHANO Own field .

campesini

CAMPESINI Typographical Error by CAMPESINO . In Italian it is CONTADINO , AGRICOLTORE , CAMPAGNANO

camping gas

CAMPING GAS anglicism by COCINILLA with butane gas designed to be used in camps to prepare food.

campo circuito

CAMPO CIRCUIT translation aberration of English CAMP CIRCUIT or field circuit

campo florecido

FLORECITED FIELD It is actually FLORIDO FIELD, a carpet of flowers. FLORECIDO is something that has come out fungi or moss due to moisture.

campoal

CAMPOAL Error by coupling of Campoalegre , municipality in Cali, Colombia . Another possibility is the Aula Virtual Campoalto, and even a third Campoalbillo, locality in Spain.

camu camu

CAMU CAMU Myrciaria dubia, shrub native to the Amazon of Peru, and also in some regions of Colombia and Brazil. It grows wild on the banks of rivers and in flooded alluvial soils during the rainy season. It is 94% water and 4, 7% carbohydrates. Good source of minerals. Its flavor is very acidic camuflable

CAMOUFLAGE that can be mimicked, hidden by similar tones to the location

canaguaro

CANAGUARO 1981 Colombian film, directed by Chilean Dunav Kuzmanich, which deals with the violence that breaks out in Colombia after Gaitán's assassination.

canal digital

DIGITAL CHANNEL TVD digital tv transmission channel, as opposed to the old analog channel, which increases the number of pixels (usually from 720 by 480) to HD high definition range, i.e. 1366 by 728 pixels

cancéleme

CANLEME pronominal form of the verb CANCELAR , imperative , third singular person . 1 . pay a debt 2. Rescind , finish 3 . Leaving something ineffective

canchepe

CAN CHEPA . Head of a beam. Concrete eaves cane.

candequero

CANDEQUERO in Colombia : spelling error by CANEQUERO

candidatearse

CANDIDATE TO run or intend to run for a position of importance

candlelighting

CANDLELIGHTING anglicism by sailing lighting

candonguita

CANDONGUITA Sicario of Pablo Escobar Gaviria, of the Medellin poster, nicknamed the Bomberman, for his ability to make these explosive devices. 2 . La Candonguita, historic estate of Agua de Oro. in Cordoba, Argentina. Carlos Paul is a Superhost. has room for 4 guests

canequero

CANEQUERO In Colombia Said of a man : That it is very promiscuous and also has bad taste.

cangjie

CANGJIE mythical inventor of the characters Kanji c . 2650 to . C. 2 . Method for entering Chinese characters into a standard computer keyboard. 3 . Chinese character keyboard .

cangrejo de cristal

World of Warcraft PNJ (Non-Player Character) CRYSTAL CANGREJO, Another Soul Knight character is the Giant Crystal Crab.

canisfobia

CANISFOBIA , from Latin canis dog and phobia , fear, rejection, revulsion . Repulsion by dogs, fear of dogs.

canivalismo

CANIBALISMO (and not canivalism) Custom of some indigenous tribes to eat human meat. In general, of beings that feed on other individuals of their own species.

cannabidiol

CANNABIDIOL delta 9-tetrahydrocannabinol (THC) is the main active substance in marijuana, of 80 chemicals found. It is also found in hemp.

cannabinoide

CANNABINOID theid suffix comes from the Latin oides and this in turn from the Greek Oeides, which means similar to , or in the form of . Then cannabinoid means cannabis type or in the form of the cannabis sativa (marijuana) plant.

cannábica

CANNABIS RELATED TO OR PERTAINING TO CANNABIS SATIVA , OR MARIJUANA

cannábico

CANNABIS SATIVA or marijuana .

canoterapia

CANOTERAPIA Dog support-based therapy for some childhood illnesses

cansador

TIRING, overwhelming, strenuous

cansados

TIRED PLURALS OF TIRED . Exhausted

cantaauora

CANTAAUORA singer, Flemish singer

cantadero

CANTADERO in Esoaña : place where some birds trin in heat, particularly the grouse, endangered bird. 2 . Tourist spot in La Rioja, Argentina, at a height a little further north than the city of La Serena, Chile.

cantaire

CANTAIRE in Catalan singer, singer, singer

cantaletosas

Female CANTALETOSAS , plural of CANTALETOSO, noisy and repetitive. In Chile : it is like a CANTALETA, or bartender.

cantar bingo

SING BINGO in the game of the loto, complete the cardboard with the 15 numbers, to which it is announced loudly Bingo! . Make cardboard 2 . Action of singing without the numbers : In some places it is customary to synonymize some or, sometimes each number with an expression, for example, the 8 is sung "the fat lady" .

cantarito

CANTARITO tequila cocktail that is served in a jar whose name in Jalisco and Tequila is precisely singing. In the well-wet song you pour ice to taste, white tequila or tequila rested (yellowish) halfway, sea salt and then stuffed with lemon juices (1, 2 or 3), grapefruit juice (Mexicans call it grapefruit) and orange juice. It is stirred with the straw or straw and adorned with an orange impeller pre-shortened to the center and embedded in the little song.

cante jondo

CANTE JONDO in Spain: sing flamenco, with a characteristic deep and pitiful tone, full of strength and . conviction, complaining about misfortune, love, life or, sometimes, praising it.

cantidad de hematíes

HEMITE Red blood cell, color given by hemoglobin . A cell that transports oxygen in vertebrates to all parts of the body.

canuco

CANUCO in dominican republic: term used pra refer to a person with gray hair, either partially or totally.

cañaveira

Portuguese CAÑAVEIRA by CAÑAVERA , cañaveral , abundant place in cane

capa fina

THIN LAYER Thin sheet of any material, especially liquids and particulate materials, such as powder, flour, cement.

capa pequeña

LAYER SMALL material scattered along and wide of a surface. It is said of a thin or thin layer, but strictly speaking it would be a layer of smaller size.

capacidad negativa

NEGATIVE CAPACITY in literature: leave things unresolved, in a state of uncertainty

capacitador

A person who trains and delivers knowledge and techniques for a greater mastery of any material or physical exercise.

capados

CAPADOS plural of CAPADO Past participle of the verb CAPAR Castrar , amputate the testicles

capasa

CAPASA in Mexico: educational institution that prepares adults to complete studies, improve their skills, prepare students to enter the university and accredit official exams that allow them to obtain school degrees. In Paraguay , acronym for Cañas Paraguayas S . To. company that had news relevance when, in February 2020, four trade unions went out to protest the transfer to the judiciary of the property that has occupied the company for 80 years.

capataza

FOREMAN f . of FOREMAN, person who is in charge of a group of workers

caperuz

CAPERUZ CAPERUZA or CAPERUZO Kapelusz or capelusz; 1 . Cube hat 2 . Pencil cap pens and other 3 . Piece that covers the smoke at the exit of the chimney 4 . Bonnet that drops its tip backwards. "Little Red Riding Hood was strictly speaking the cap that covered her head"

capitalismo verde

GREEN CAPITALISM vision that capital exists in nature naturally and that it is the source of all wealth. Capitalism must apply market-based rules in order to make exploitation sustainable, through carbon taxes and other neoliberal economic solutions.

capitan de capitanes

CAPTAIN OF CAPITANES In Cuba : Antonio Pacheco, the best baseball player and Cuban captain. In Uruguay : Nestor "Tito" Gonoálvez , associated with the greatest glories of Prñarol in the 60s.

capitán de barco

BARCO CAPTAIN, a person of greater authority and who is in command of a ship or shipping ship.

caprichos

CAPRICHOS plural of CAPRICHIO Antojo, vanity, desire for something for the sole reason of wanting to indulge.

capuchino de cabeza dura

HARD HEAD CAPUCHINO sapajus apella is the cornstarch monkey. In various parts of Colombia, where it is called mico maicero, or cornstarch constitutes a pest, as it feeds on maize crops.

capulincillos

CAPULINCILLO plural CAPULINCILLOS , diminutive of CAPULON or CAPULINA 1 . Prostitute 2 Cherry produced by CAPULI, a tree of the rosacea family

capullos

CAPULLO plural COCOONS

car tester

CAR TESTER anglicism which means car tester. Device to check the operation of the car, in particular the battery charge level.

car wash

CAR WASH car wash anglicism

cara b

FACE B metaphor by alternative, the other part. 2 . Back of vinyl records

cara de cuca

CUCA FACE . Witch face, ugly woman. In relation to the cuckoo, imaginary monster that appears at night to scare children who do not fall asleep.

cara de raja

SLIT'S FACE tell of who blatantly abuses a situation , hypocritical , shameless

cara de vagina

VAGINA FACE translation of improperio used in English PUSSY FACE or the ruder CUNT FACE that is often used against gay men.

carabinieri

CARABINIERI in Italian gendarmerie. Police. Judicial police, military police.

caracara moñudo

CARACARA MOUDO caracara plancus It is a bird of the falconide family. it looks like a falcon but smaller and with a small flattened plume which gives it its name of moñudo. Its plumage is blackish with white areas usually on the chest and from the beak to the neck. It is found in Central and South America.

caracteres

PLURAL CHARACTERS OF CHARACTER Graphic element such as signs, figures, icons, ideograms, letters, graphemas, typography and physical elements such as types

característica especial

SPECIAL FEATURE Expression that means it has special attributes, something different that distinguishes it from others

carambada

CARAMBADA 1 . Insignificance, thing of little value. 2 . Lesera, nonsense caramelera

CARAMELERO, A 1. Indian Bush and Cochinchina 2. In Chile: Coqueteador , caramelero

CARAMELERO manufacturer or trader of sweets and candies .

carantn

CARANTN spelling error by r CARANTÓN

carapelo

CARAPELO aka or pseudonym of one of the three murderers, each sentenced to 30 years in prison. who in 2000, together with "Cartucho" and Ana Gema, murdered Ana María Llorente, whose body was found among reed beds by the Guadalhorce River in Alora, Spain. Biological remains of Cartucho and some carapelo trouser fibers on the victim's clothing certified his guilt in ana María's death. DNA tests were blunt.

carbonacea

CARBONACEA carbonaceous, carbonaceous, female carbonaceous spelling error

carbonara

CARBONARA in gastronomy: pasta and also sauce is a traditional recipe of the Region of Lazio, and specifically of Rome, and is one of the best known pasta recipes in the world. The carbonara sauce is prepared with eggs, double bacon (guanciale in Italian), Roman pecorino cheese, salt and pepper. Double dies bacon can be replaced with bacon (bacon)

carbonácea

CARBONACEA substance that possesses a lot of carbon. It is used to describe heavy compounds such as hydrocarbons.

carbón activado

CARBON ACTIVATED family of carbon adsorbents of a high porosity and high crystallineness. They have a lot of micropores that do not exceed two nanometers in diameter.

card

CARD anglicism by card, card.

cardialgía

Cardio cardio and -pain allogenics. Focused pain in the heart area. Localized pain at the level of the cardias (esophageal hole of the stomach) A pain located in the anterior part of the heart is called precordial (and has nothing cordial) Cardialgias are due to a decrease or suppression of the bloodstream of the myocardium due to the accumulation of abnormal metabolites in that tissue. They are mainly manifested in myocardial diseases such as angina, coronary atherosclerosis and myocardial infarction.

cardiometabolica

CARDIOMETABOLIC MISSPELLING BY CARDIOMETABOLIC

cardiometabolico

CARDIOMETABOLICO spelling error by CARDIOMETABLIC

cardiometabólica

CARDIOMETABLIC Female CARDIOMETABLIC

cardiometabólico

CARDIOMETABLIC (from The Greek metabole, which means change, and the suffix -ismo, which means quality, that is, the quality that living beings have of being able to chemically change something), ? is the set of biochemical reactions and heart-related physicochemical processes.

cardiometabólico

CARDIOMETABOLIC (from the Greek metabole, meaning change, and the prefix cardio-relative to the heart). METABOLISM is the quality that living beings have of being able to chemically change something; set of biochemical reactions and physicochemical processes related to the heart. Formerly medicine treated cardiac and metabolic disorders independently but today they have been integrated and are treated together in the so-called cardiometabolic medicine.

cardioprotegida

CARDIOPROTECTED that is protected as far as the heart is concerned.

cardioprotegido

CARDIOPROTECTED with protection against heart conditions

cardiopulmonar

CARDIOPULMONAR relative to the heart and lung system. Cardiopulmonary unit of a clinic or hospital.

cardiosaludable

CARDIOSALUDABLE which is beneficial for (best functioning d) the heart

carduelino

CARDUELINO carduelis carduelis , jilguero , a pass-by bird typical of the western palearctic, both in Europe and north Africa

cardúmenes

CARDUMEN plural . Fish bank

care chimba

CARE CHIMBA . CARE is the apocope of CARA DE, that is, it is something similar to a CHIMBA/E] . In Chile and Peru the chimba is the other side of the river. and the area of Santiago, between the seventeenth and nineteenth centuries, which was located on the north side of the Mapocho River, and, contemptuously, chimberos to its inhabitants and neighbors. 2 . In South America it is a braid, so it would mean that it looks like a braid.

care verga

CARE VERGA insult or offense meaning penis face

carechuto

CARECHUTO In northern Chile : CHUTO is used as synonymous with penis in mining regions. CARECHUTO is a derogatory nickname for an ugly man.

careciente

CARECIENT lacking, missing

carepico

CAREPICO See VERGA'S FACE

careverga

CAREVERGA derogatory term generated from the contraction of face and cock, penis . Textually, very ugly person. Its figurative use, more common, is a derogatory humiliating that has nothing to do with the beauty or ugliness of the person.

carga viral

VIRAL LOAD amount of total virus that is in a given volume of space. A minimum viral load is required to get a virus.

caricias

PLURAL CARESS of Italian caressing coming from carezza, and this expensive, 'dear'; gently rub the skin of a person or animal. 2 . Flattery, loving demonstration.

carinias

CARINIAS word included in chapter 68 of the work Rayuela by Julio Cortázar, and which is part of the G-GLYCO, invented language, musical language based on JITANJOFORAS, which has the same morphology and syntax as Spanish and that can be collected or speculated, freely of course, which is what the author means. . in a deep epinice, in nilamas of arguing gauze, in almost cruel carinias that ordonized them to the limit of gunfias. It could be translated, freely, by : . . . in a deep peace, in kisses of many hours, in almost cruel caresses that transported them to the limit of words.

cariños

Plural affections of affection; 1 . Caresses 2. Be very dear 3. Figuratively, gift, payment or coima in gratitude or compensation for a service.

cariñosos

CARIOSOS plural of affectionate , who acts with affection

caristus

CARISTUS Own name used in Zambia, of xhosa origin, a Bantu language, one of the 11 officers of South Africa, which means gift from God

carísimo

Expensive, expensive. Extremely expensive, extremely expensive. Very expensive. From expensive Italian, charisma, much loved. Some synonyms, words or similar expressions can be very costly, very onerous carne de primera

FIRST MEAT of the best quality, which corresponds to animals better fed or grazing on flat land, where they develop less muscle and fished with the ideal age for human consumption. 2 . It can also refer to the best cuts of an animal.

carne fina

FINE CARNE. It is meat that meets two characteristics, namely, that has little fat, or that has little fiber. Ground meat is fine if it has 5% fat and is normal if you have 15%

carne mechada

CARNE MECHADA preparation based on undone meat, specifically from the skirt of the cow, consumed throughout Central America, Chile, Colombia, Mexico, and Venezuela

carne seca

CARNE SECA Beef, equine or goat that is dehydrated and room, stored in strips, in order to preserve it for a long time.

caronero

CARONERO spelling error by carro-ro animal that feeds on carrion, i.e. remains of dead animals.

carpeta vegetal

VEGETAL CARPETA Film of plant material covering a surface . Soil layer formed by decomposition of organic materials (humus)

carpfishing

CARPFISHING Sport practice consisting of the fishing of large carp. The tents once captured, photographed and heavy, are returned to the water without altering the environment.

carraspa

CARRASPA Apparently, you want to consult by CARRASPERA, cough that occurs as a result of feeling roughness in the throat and being forced to relieve it.

carrerón

CARRERÓN (second time I define it) VERY FAST, SUCCESSFUL CAREER. 2 . Very long race: a 12-kilometer carrerón was hit.

carretera hídrica

CARRETERA HÍDRICA en Chile: engineering project that aims to collect the surplus rainwater and lakes of southern

Chile, to be transferred via pipelines to the mining area of the north, more than 3000 kilometers away. This project competes with desalination plants, which have been lowering their costs but are still expensive.

carricito

CARRICITO in Venezuela : child, toddler 2 . CARRIZO, bejuco, cane, canute, reed, calamo, cañuela. 3 . Grass plant, indigenous to Spain. 4 . In Cuba: panicum arborescens, some grass, grass

carrie

CARRIE 1 . Horror film produced in 1976, from a novel by Stephen King. It is about a teenage girl who acquires telekinetic powers when she bursts in anger. 2 . Horror film produced in 2002. 3 . Horror film made in 2013, also based on the novel by Stephen King. There are 4 films on the subject, one of which was instituted Anger.

carril exclusivo para rodados de dos ruedas

EXCLUSIVE LANE FOR TWO WHEEL RODS driving track for two-wheeled vehicles only (motorized or not), such as bicycles, scooters, bike skateboards and motorcycles.

carro bomba

CAR PUMP cistern vehicle used by fire brigades to put out fires, which has its own water pond and propellant pump The term has been made generic for all fire trucks although sometimes distinctions are made, such as ladders car, for example.

carrocista

CARROCISTA who produces or works in the manufacture of carrocerias

carry-trade

CARRY-TRADE trading strategy in which an investor sells currencies with a low interest rate to buy another currency with a higher interest rate.

carta periodica

Periodic letter . It refers, in fact, to the Periodic Table of chemical elements ordered by atomic number, a table scientifically classified by groups, of all chemical elements existing on Earth naturally (Uránicos) and others generated in centers (Trans-Rins)

cartabomba

CARTABOMBA terrorist method consisting of preparing an explosive device and dispatching it by means of a commendance or on a pre-established recipient, in order to explode as soon as it is opened by the receiver, and dies or is seriously injured.

cartas

LETTER 1 plural LETTERS . Card 2. Obituary

cartonear

CARTONEAR perform the activity of CARTONERO

carvalho

CARVALHO surname of some footballers 1 . William, Betis player, born in Luanda, Angola 2. Ricardo, former Portuguese football player. He ended up playing in China. 3 . Joao, Portuguese player of Almería de España. .

carvativir

CARVATIVIR miraculous drops that have a 100% effectiveness against Covid-19, according to Nicolás Maduro, who assured that with 10 drops every 4 hours you were immune to contagion. Venezuela permanently falsified official statistics and reports to the WHO regarding the effects of the pandemic, but it is known that falling to the hospital in that country was a death sentence for the absolute shortage of medicines and supplies. It also bought the Sputnik vaccine to inoculate its population.

casa de empeño casa de empeños

PAWN HOUSE PAWN HOUSE see pawn shop

casa de empeños

HOUSE OF PAWNS place that lends money in exchange for a garment under guarantee, of a value much higher than the borrowed. If not paid within the agreed timeframe the garment comes out on a public end.

casa de los dioses purépechas

HOUSE OF THE GODS PARAPECHAS that expression says relationship with Curacaueri, the God of the fire of the tarangos, civilization that dominated in the region of Michoacán, Mexico of this God derive all others Taranga mythology conceives 5 divine houses where all his gods dwell, including the sun, who is the son of Curacaueri and who dies every day at the hands of the god. The 5 divine houses of the terrestrial wave of the Universe are the center, the north, the east, the south and the west.

casa móvil

MOBILE HOME mobile home, vehicle that has mounted a cabin so that several people can live in it. They have bathroom, kitchen and cabins with gas and electric network connectivity to make CAMPING. In Chile they were called trailers in the last century, but today the anglicism MOTORHOME is used

casa museo

HOUSE MUSEUM house that has countless historical objects and antiques, usually related to life and work of its ex-morator.

casa obús

HOUSE OBUS houses in northern Cameroon that have the adobe roof in the shape of a warhead.

casacas

CASACAS pl . of CASACA, loose jacket of sporty cut, which can be elegant leather or synthetic and very economical. Many times elasticated at the waist and even at the wrists, and with zipper as a front closure, in order to prevent as much as possible that the wind or the cold penetrates, or that there is heat loss.

casadismo

CASADISMO political thought of Pablo Casado Blanco graduated in Law and Spanish politician, president of the Popular Party. Between June 2015 and July 2018 he was undersecretary general of Communication of that party, and then he was President and therefore leader of the opposition.

casadx

CASADX feminist and anti-machine term that is used to imply that it is one of the spouses, without importance of the genre.

casarriosa

CASARRIOSA 1 . phonetic deformation of CASARRIOS , in Old Spanish, equivalent to the modern casaros , the second plural person of the imperative of the verb marry. 2 . Nick on facebook 3. nick on twitter by Marisol Alvarez Regu

cascarero

CASCARERO in Colombia : 1 . person who steals things of little value 2. Something that's difficult and misleading.

cascaritas

cascaritas is incorrectly written and it should be written as shell being its meaning:
diminutive of shell or skin of the fruits. Sometimes applied to sheets of different materials covering objects

casco azul

BLUE HELMET soldier who is commanded by the United Nations and has been contributed by one of the member countries. Wear a blue-colored helmet as a badge.

casechete

FRENCH CASSETTE CASECHETE Plastic box containing a magnetic tape for the recording and reproduction of sound or, in computer, for the storage and reading of digitized information.

casetas

CASETA plural CASETAS Small cabin for which the . guard is guarded 2 . Place for bathers to change clothes. 3 . Place in buildings and other work enclosures where there are no conventional bathrooms to replace them.

caseteca

CASSETTE Library And -teca, suffix meaning place where something is kept. Place where cassettes are preserved for study and hearing.

casi igual

ALMOST SIMILAR ALMOST identical, very similar, similar .

casia olorosa

Casiaarbol of thin trunk, very extended branching, bright green deciduous measuring about 30 cm in length, pale pink or white flowers, grouped in large, dense clusters and Brown vegetable fruit; It can reach up to 8 m in height.

casinero

CASINERO who is a frequent casino player, whether roulette, bacarat or other type

casino popular

CASINO POPULAR budget restaurant, or employer fee, generally enabled for workers or officials of a company or institution.

casleña

CASLEA spelling error by CALEÑA woman of the city of Cali , Colombia

casquetero

CASQUETERO Said of a person : That is masturbates often .

cassata

CASSATA combination of three flavors of ice cream in a box, usually 1 liter.

cassis

CASSIS 1 . anglicism by cassis, Ribes nigrum, also known as cassis, black currant, black sarshealist or black grill is a leafy, non-thorny shrub, of 1. 50 m high. 2 . Chain of restaurants in Santiago de Chile. 3 . Crema de cassis, liqueur that in Spanish is called blackcurrant cream, from Burgundy, France. Creamy consistency is used to mix it and prepare other cocktails.

castaña de cajú

CA-CAA'S CASTAIA nut that grows out of the fruit. Great food because it has 0% cholesterol and many nutrients. It helps dental hygiene by killing cariegenic bacteria.

castañada

CASTADA popular festival that is celebrated in Catalonia on the eve and day of All Saints. It is a meal based on toasted chestnuts, cooked sweet potatoes and panellets, accompanied by sweet muscat wine.

castaño oscuro

DARK BROWN . Color equivalent to that of chestnut when it is very dark. Brown, dark brown.

castellanadas

CASTELLANADAS plural of CASTELLANADA recitation of CASTELLANAs , coplas of four verses of octosyllaabo romance.

castigadla

CASTIGADLA pronominal form of the second plural person of the imperative mode of the verb CASTIGA

castilla la mancha

CASTILLA LA MANCHA region of central and southern Spain, to which correspond the south and east of Madrid.

castizao

CASTIZAO in Spain : that its origin and caste has been defined 2 . That it has become CASTIZO, genuine and pure, typical of a place 3. It has been incorporated according to the colonial caste system of the Spanish Empire.

castrados

CASTRATED , plural of CASTRADO Said of an animal, usually the bull, or a human being : What has been amputated the genitals . In the case of the bull, to turn it into an ox. In the case of children, to keep their voice sharp. 2 . Take away someone or something from their power and energy. His insults and cries castrated him (mentally or psychologically), he was unable to think anything to repair the situation.

castrófilo

CASTARÓFILO follower and fan of Fidel Castro and his brother Raul.

casuleando

CASULEING gerundio de casulear . In Chile derived from the verb CAZUELEAR , scam, put someone in the casserole, cook it, fry it.

casuna

CASUNA house built of noble materials such as stone and wood. La Casuna de la Una is a 19th-century house in Olba (Teruel).

cataclísmica

CATAC-SMICO , relative to cataclysm, which has qualities of cataclysm.

catalago

CATALOGUE (and not catalog) Printed or electronic book describing a list of products that are marketed, or from a collection Stamps, coins, birds, weapons, automobiles, coats of arms, etc.)

catalanadas

CATALANS Enter an expression or term typical of Catalan in a conversation or text in Spanish . If we did the other way around it would be a castilian.

catalano-colombiana

CARALANO-COLOMBIAN , 1 . Catalan Colombian Parents 2 . Person of Catalan and Colombian parents or vice versa 3 . Person based in Catalonia and born in Colombia, or vice versa.

catalanóforo

CATALONOFORO that hates or has an aversion to Catalans or everything that is of Catalan origin.

cataplám

CATAPLAM exclamation that mimics the destruction, fall or burst of something. CATAPLUM!

catarinazo

CATARINAZO La Catarina was an independent student weekly student of students from the University of the Americas of Puebla, Mexico. In November 2002 La Catarina published offensive satire towards the rector Nora Lustig. Other events occurred, until on January 16, 2007 the rector of the Pedro Angel Palou University, dictated a censorship of 15 days when the pasquin was about to be printed, a fact that sd called the catarinazo.

catarro fuerte

STRONG COLD of great intensity

catatelo

CATATELO spelling error by CATÁTELO , CÁTALO oruébalo

caught from someone

CATCHED FROM SOMEONE english phrase derived from the verb TO CATCH , cachar , understand , grab and SOMEONE , someone : heard from someone. Some synonyms, words or similar expressions can be said, it is said

catito

CATITO is Spanglish derived from cat, cat and forming the diminutive of the word in Spanish. There are various uses as a Peruvian company dedicated to the marketing of products for cats @catutoperú, and various boards on instagram on the subject

caturro- rra

CATURRO , A in Chile, adept, to the Coquimbo Unido Sports Club, whose emblem is a pirate on whose shoulder is perched a caturra (parrot).

cau cau

CAU CAU Caucau or Cau-cau, comes from the mapuche cawcaw, or common swallow and is the name of a river of 1 km. of length that flows through the northern part of the island Texas, in the beautiful city and region of Valdivia, in Chile (for me the most beautiful in the world). A bridge was built to connect the island with the city of Valdivia and was named after the river. Unfortunately, engineering errors have made it impossible to use this drawbridge optimally and for many years remained closed until it was partially enabled in 2018.

caucastico

CAUCASIC spelling error by CAUCASIAN , relative or belonging to the Caucasus; white-skinned ethnicity

caucus

CAUCUS of thealconquin, North American tribe, in which cau-cau-as-u is meeting of chieftains or council. The Democratic party once liked to incorporate indigenous terms into the language incorporated it in 1763 as a synonym for political convention to choose, through primaries, the presidential candidate, or other office.

caudillesco, ca

, CA see CAUDILLESKO

caupolicanazo

CAUPOLICANAZO In Chile : full of the Caupolicán for some artistic event. The Caupolicán was an old professional boxing ring located on San Diego Street, in downtown Santiago, which was remodeled and converted into a center of circus and artistic shows.

cautiberio

CAUTIBERIO misspelling for CAPTIVITY

cautivante

CAPTIVATING that captivates, that fascinates

caval

CAVAL In Chile, a company of the son and daughter-in-law, Natalia Compagnon, of former president Michelle Bachelet who caused great scandal for corrupt activities related to the conversion of rural land into urban and a charge for fraud in the sale of land in the commune of Machalí, about 100 kms . south of Santiago. In these operations Was involved Andronic Lucsic the largest shareholder of the Bank of Chile and financier of Bachelet's presidential campaign, which awarded him a million-dollar credit of $6. 500 . 000 . 000 for the purchase of the land from CAVAL, a company with a negligible equity. Bachelet stated "I heard from the press" phrase that caused a lot of hilarity and smear in the population, which has endured over time.

cavidades

CAVITIES plural cavity hole 2 tooth de cries

cazable

HUNTABLE that can be hunted

cazabobos

BOOB-HUNTING LURE

cazacarteristas

CAZACARTERISTS who catch thieves who steal personal belongings from people who carry them with them.