INTRODUCTION

www.wordmeaning.org is an open and collaborative dictionary project that, apart from being able to consult meanings of words, also offers its users the possibility of including new words or nuancing the meaning of existing words in it. As is understandable, this project would be impossible to carry out without the esteemed collaboration of the people who follow us around the world. This e-Book, therefore, was born with the intention of paying a small tribute to all our collaborators.

Sansón minquiz jara has contributed to the dictionary with 1 meanings that we have approved and collected in this small book. We hope that the reader is very valuable and if you find it useful or want to be part of the project, do not hesitate to visit our website, we will be delighted to receive you.

Gurupá in southern Veracruz, is a device that gets the horses/mules/donkeys and gets under the tail of the same. It is made of blanket and is filled with wool or cotton. He is added at both ends a little rope, tied to the saddle of the horse/Mule/donkey. This attachment prevents the saddle slipping forward on very steep slopes.
