

SPANISH DICTIONARY

Rolando Escudero Vidal

INTRODUCTION

www.wordmeaning.org is an open and collaborative dictionary project that, apart from being able to consult meanings of words, also offers its users the possibility of including new words or nuancing the meaning of existing words in it. As is understandable, this project would be impossible to carry out without the esteemed collaboration of the people who follow us around the world. This e-Book, therefore, was born with the intention of paying a small tribute to all our collaborators.

Rolando Escudero Vidal has contributed to the dictionary with 622 meanings that we have approved and collected in this small book. We hope that the reader is very valuable and if you find it useful or want to be part of the project, do not hesitate to visit our website, we will be delighted to receive you.

Working Group

www.wordmeaning.org

achaco

I attributed.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the verb la'kech-hua does ach-chay which means do make heat do, does sunny do.????? When this language is to say making too much heat is said do ach-chac-cun do.?? And when you want to say what stays hot does is says ach-chac-coj these phrases repeated many times have become in Achao.??

acochacra

Acochacra.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " agh-gho chac-ra " that means " 34 what a stone field;.

agocasa

Agocasa-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is derived from one of the following two phrases kech-huas " agh-gho-cash-sha " or " agh-gho-cash-gha " that means " they have been small stones " the first, or has become small stones, the second...

ahuancata

Ahuancata-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " 34 au-huan-ghat-ta; that it means " " yew.

aiguay

Aiguay.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the verb kech-hua " ay-huay " that means " go 34.

aja

AHA-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the adjective kech-hua " aj - ja " that means " difficult "

allpas

Allpas.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " all-pash-sha " that means " has 34 Earth; or " is a place with dust, with Earth "

anascapa

Anascapa-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " an-nash-ghap-pa " which means " what is part lasts ".

ancacc

Ancacc-is a village in the Department of Ica. Its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " an-caj " any say " that Browns ". Possibly the climate is very warm.

ancash

Ancash-it's true that the word " ancash " means light but the name "Ancash " possibly comes not quoted adjective. But is the result of the exploratory and migratory activities of people of thousands of years, influenced by the geographical characteristics of the Callejón de Huaylas. This area, for which low heights for the first time, is a great almost endless plain.Explorers coming back to its site of origin, commenting on his trip, necessarily, referred to the aforementioned property of Callejon de Huaylas and said everything is plain.?? This Kech-hua is said Jan-ca pam-pam would and they heard this, they commented it saying jan-cash pam-pa which means would says or say that it is pure plain would.?????

This phrase repeated for thousands of years has become jan-cash do "Ancash ".

ancaya pampa

Pampa ancaya.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes, possibly, one of the following phrases of language kech-hua " an-cay-yan pam-pat-ta " or " an-cay-yaj pam-pat-ta " which mean, respectively, " roasted 34 pampa; or " roasted 34 pampa;

añaspampa

Anaspampa-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua an-nas pam-pa which means plain of the Skunk. An-nas is Skunk.

apasacuna

Apasacuna-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase question kech-hua " ap pash-sha-na-cu-" that means " now it did? " A phrase that sounds na and cu have been exchanged.

armatan

Armatan-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ar-maj-tan " that means " it will not you bathe " (I)

astayoj

Astayoj-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ash-ta-yaj " that means " they carried continuously ". Also this sentence the has been changed to o.

atahuaranga

Atahuaranga-is a village in the Department of Ica. Its name comes from one of the phrases la'kech-huas: do en-tay huar-ran-gha does or does en-tar huar-ran-gha which mean respectively do cries that already goes to dawn do and do going to dawn crying do?????????

atocshaico

Atocshaico-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " en-toj shay-coj " that means " where Fox " gets tired. "En-toj " is " Fox " and " shay-cuy " It is " " getting tired.

atun huiscachane

Tuna huiscachane.-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " jat-tun huís-cash-cha nej " that means " a great viscacha said ". This sentence has been removed the initial sound of the j.

atun pampa

Pampa tuna-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is possibly derived from the phrase kech-hua " jat-tun-pam-pa " " which means great plain ".

atun puquio

Tuna puquio-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is possibly derived from the phrase kech-hua " jat-tun puc-yu " that means " large eye water ".

atuncucho

Atuncucho-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is possibly derived from the phrase kech-hua " jat-tun cuch-chu " that means " large corner ".

atunhuasi

Atunhuasi-is a village in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " jat-tun huaj-ji " that means " large house ". Also in this sentence has been removed the initial sound of the j

auquish

Auquish.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the substantive la'kech-hua " auk-kish " that means " old man "

ayaccasa

Ayaccasa-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ay-yaj-ghâsh-sha " that means " Yes, sure, what is spicy ".

ayaccasi

Ayaccasi-is a village in the Department of the Cuzco in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " ay-yaj-ghâsh-shi " It means to say that what is spicy.

ayahuasi pata

Ayahuasi leg-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ay-yaj huaj-ji pat-taj " or " ay - huaj-ji pat-taj 34 already; whose meanings are, respectively, " 34 spicy House plateau; or " the House of souls 34 plateau;.

ayallacta

Ayallacta-is a village in the Department of the Cuzco in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " ay-ya-llaj-ta " that means " to my soul ".

ayancocha

Ayancocha-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ay-yan ghoch-cha " that means " this Lake bitter " or " this Lake pica ".

ayapampa

Ayapampa-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ay - pam-pa 34 already; that means " 34 soul plain; "Oh - now " is " 34 soul; and " pam-pa " It is " plain ".

ayapana

Ayapana-is a village in the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase la'kech-hua " Oh-yap-pa-na " which means do I have wishes yawning does or the other " Oh-yap-bread-na "?? that means " it is the spirit or the soul "

ayarmaca

Ayarmaca-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ay-yar-ma ca " that means " I'm being spicy ".

ayllucucho

Ayllucucho-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ay-llu cuch-chu " that means " the 34 family corner;.

bachahuasi

Bacahuasi.-is a village in the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase la'kech-hua does pac-caj huas-Yes do equal to do House that hides do.???? Or sentence do huagh-ghaj-huas-if do you mean do house crying do or do House of crying do???????

cacacho

Cacacho.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the noun kech-hua " 34 ghagh-ghach-chu; It is the name that is known in kech-hua small parrots.

cachiche

Cachiche.-is a village in the Department of Ica in the Peru. Its name is derived from a phrase La'kech-hua does cách-chich-chi what is sal? do.?? Although some say it is derived from the phrase does allpa cachani do.?? In any case it would be do cách-chim-my all-pa which means do is salt land do????

cachilaya

Cachilaya.-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " cach-chi lay - " that means " " " salt-like nature of salt " or " similar to salt ".

cachipascana

Cachipascana-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of one of the following phrases kech-huas " cach-chi pas-ca-na " or " cay-chi pas-ca-na ". The first " means place where breaks salt " and the second " is this what I have to unleash? ".

cachirumi

Cachirumi.-is a village in the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase la'kech-hua does cách-chi rum - my do meaning does salt stone do or do salt stone do??????

cahuachi

Cahuachi.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " ghau-huat-tsy " that means " get watch " " get it inspected "

caiman

Cayman-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the adverbial phrase kech-hua " cay-man " that means " towards here ".

cajamarca

North of the Peru-Cajamarca-apartment. Derives its name from the union of the Quechua words do gaj-jaj do and do mar-ca do.???? Brand does is a noun that means do region do, instead do gaj-jaj does is an expression which means do cools does and is derived from the verb do gaj-jay which means do cool do.????????????? Their union is the expression " gaj-jaj marks " that means " region that cools ". Because of the difficulties in pronunciation " gaj-jaj " becomes " box " and do mar-ca in did brand do forming the word "34 Cajamarca;.

cala cala

A village of the Department of Cuzco the Peru this cala cala-s name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " Gahl - the Ghal'eh - " that means " peeled, peeled ".

calacalapata

Calacalapata-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " Gahl - Gahl - pat-taj " that means " plateau without vegetation ".

calaujata chica

Calaujata girl-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of one of the following two phrases questions kech-huas: " Gahl - huaj-ta-chi AC " or " ghel - huaj-ta-chi AC " want to say " am I naked back? " Or " am idle back? "

calca

Calca-is a village in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " jall-gha " that means " he puna ".

calla

Calla-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru. This name is derived from the adjective kech-hua " ghall-lla " that means " calatito 34, " 34 limpiecito;.

callacalla

Callacalla-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the repetition of the noun kech-hua " call-lla " that is a " long cylindrical rod " where is placed the wool being spun with the spindle.

callahuasa

Callahuasa-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " 34 ghall-huash-sha; that means " already Golden ". Referring to something that is cooking or baking.

callahuasi

Callahuasi-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ghall-lla huas-si " that means " House bare " or " 34 clean house;. In the diminutive form.

callanca

Callanca.-is a village in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name is derived from the phrase call-llan-gha kech-hua which means " going has having ". (Such as asking for apology, before someone claiming something.)

callapa

Callapa-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua ghall-lla-pa which means the peeling of the poor. In the diminutive form.

callaracay

Callaracay-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ghall-lla-ri cay " that means " it goes starting 34. R then r has been changed by the letter to...

callaracay hacienda

Callaracay finance-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ghall-lla-ri cay hacienda " that means " hacienda anda starting 34.

callhuani

Callhuani-is a village in the Department of the Cuzco in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " ghall-llu-huan ni " that means " with my tongue, I gave ".

callpa cucho

Calpa cucho-is a village in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ghall-pa cuch-chu " that means " corner where the Earth slips ".

callusca

Callusca.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase la'kech-hua " ghall-llush-gha " that means " has 34 language; or " sole "

calluta

Calluta-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " 34 ghall-llu-ta; that means " my tongue " (As a direct complement of action)

callutane

Callutane-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of one of the following two phrases kech-huas: " ghall-llu-ta ni " or " ghall-llu-ta ni ". The first means " to my tongue, say " and the second " to the language. I rambled ". Differ in that the first sound " 34 llu; It is emphasized because it is possessive. In the second, because it is general.

camata

Camata.-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the adverbial phrase kech-hua " gham-ta " that means " you ".

campaya

Campaya-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the adverbial phrase kech-hua " gham-pa-yaj " that means " to the yours "

camponayoc

Camponayoc-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase, mixing Spanish and kech-hua, " campaign-yoj " that means " 34 campaign.

canamayo

Canamayo-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " can-na may-yu, " that means " there are River ".

canapay

Canapay.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the verb kech-hua " ghan-na-pay " that means " ahead of "

cancahuan

Cancahuane-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua or " " can-ghan-huan that means " so, say ".

cancahuani

Cancahuani-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " can-ghan-huan ni " that means " so, say ".

cancahuapata

Cancahuapata-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " can-ghan-huan-pa-ta " That means " what have what is 34. (put it as a direct complement action to something belonging to something that is being)

cancha

Court-in Spanish this substantive has two meanings: A fenced field, a roasted cereal or roasted corn. In the first case or when it comes of a fencing field quechua nouns from which it is derived is do ghench-cha do, being the first guttural and second as in the Spanish.?? In the second case is when it's a toasted cereal or roasted corn, the quechua word that derives is do cam-tsa?. In these words the sounds do ghench? And do cam? they are changed by the sound can? And the sound does tsa? It is changed by did cha?, resulting tennis court?

cancha cancha

Court Court-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ghen-cha ghencha " that means " poultry, poultry ".

canchahuaca

Canchahuaca-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ghench-cha huagh-ghaj " that means " fencing weeping ".

canchas

Courts-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ghench-chash " that means " they say it is a fencing " or " say that it is a field, a 34.

canchura

Canchura-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase question kech-hua " can-tsu-raj " that means "? "

caninaco

Caninaco-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the verb kech-hua " can-niy " that means " biting " and " can-not-nac-coj " you mean " " is biting.

canojahuira

Canojahuira-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " cay-nau-gha flee-ra " that means " so fat ".

cantuta

Cantuta.-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " 34 ghan-tu-ta; that means " gantu " putting it as the direct object of an action. "Ghan - your " the name is kech-hua of a flower.

caparaqui

Caparaqui-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ghap-pa-rac-cuy " that means " keep silent, hidden ".

caquiani

Caquiani-is a village in the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua would kak-kia-ni which means do tell: I eructo do????

cara pata

Side leg-is a village in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name is a derivative of one of the following two phrases kech-huas: " ghar-ra-pa-ta " or " ghar-ra pat-taj ".The first. " Means of skin " (puts as a direct complement some component of the skin of an animal).The second means " plateau of the skin or the skin "

carabamba

Carabamba-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " ghar-ra-pam-pa " that means " 34 bare plain.

carabamba hacienda

Carabamba hacienda-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " ghar-pam-pa ra hacienda " that means " hacienda bare plain ".

caracalla

Caracalla-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ghar-ra call-lla " that means " I'm a bare ".

caracha

Caracha-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of one of the following four expressions kech-huas: " ghar-rach-cha " that means " it will be " 34 leather; you will be skin " or " will be skin ". It can also be derived from the noun kech-hua " ghar-rat-tsa " name is known to the skin of the sheep, used to lay it on the floor and sleep on them. The conjugation of the verb or kech-hua " ghar-rach-chay. " that means " drag ". Conjugation in the present indicative for the first person is " ghar-rach-cha " that means " I still have " and the last sound is emphasized, which distinguishes it from the set of sounds which means will be skin. It could also be derived from the verb kech-hua " ghar-ray " that means " give ". And when we say " ghar-rach-cha 34, emphasizing the central sound, is being said " I regalaré it, then 34.

caracoto

Caracoto.-is a village in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ghar-ra ghot-to " that means " goiter skin ".

caracushma

Caracushma-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ghar-ra cush-ma ". "Ghar-ra " It is the skin of any animal and cush-ma is a kind of t-shirt. Therefore the indicated phrase kech-hua means " skin 34 t-shirt; or " skin 34 Jersey;.

caragaga

Caragaga-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ghar-ra ghagh-gha " that means " broken bare "

carahuarco

Carahuarco.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " ghar-ra huar-cuy " that means " 34 leather hanger; or " ghar-ra huar-coj " that means " dangling leather "

caramarca

Caramarca-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ghar-ra mar-ca ". "Ghar-ra " in this case, possibly does not mean " 34 skin; but " bare ". For this reason, the indicated phrase means " 34 bare region;. But it could also be derived from the conditional phrase " ghar-ra-mar-gha ". Phrase derived from the verb " ghar-ray " that means " give ". This phrase means " giving me " (accompanied by the phrase that expresses the consequence of action). For example, might say: " ghar-ra-mar-gha cush-shi-tsi-man-ki " that means " giving me I glad, you make me happy ".

caran

Caran.-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the verb kech-hua " ghar-ray " that means " give " or the noun " ghar-ra " that means " skin ". In the first case, if replacing the " and " " n 34, 34 is saying; it gives ". And in the second case, if you si se agrega it adds a " n " in the end, " is saying his skin ". Pero.tambien, could be derived from the verb " 34 cay; that means " having " and " car-ran " It means " had ".

carañahue

Caranahue-is a village in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ghar-ra nau-hui " that means " eye peeled ".

carapuro

Carapuro.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " ghar-ra pur-ru " that means " leather 34 pitcher; because " ghar-ra " means " leather 34, " 34 skin; and " pur-ru " means " 34 pitcher;

caray

Wow-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is derived from the verb kech-hua " ghar-ray " that means " give "

carbón mina

Coal mine-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is derived from the Spanish phrase " mina coal ". It is expressive of the Kech-hua effect, therefore in this language the adjective goes first, then the noun. In Spanish it is upside down, first the noun.

carhuac

Carhuac-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ghar-huaj " that means " in State of maturation " referring to the fruits of the plants, especially corn.

carhuajara

Carhuajara-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ghar-hua jar-ra " that means " 34 mature corn.

carhuapampa

Carhuapampa-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ghar-hua pam-pa " that means " pampa mature ".

carhuapampa

Carhuapampa-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ghar-hua pam-pa " that also means " pampa colorada ".

carhuaycollo

Carhuaycollo-is a village in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name is a derivative of one of the following two phrases kech-huas; " ghar-huay cull-llu " that means " 34 hot trunk; or " ghar-huay ghoy-llor that means " star bright "

carpa

CARP-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " ghar-pa " name given to a number of grain that is a container for toasting it. Derives from the verb " ghar-puy " you want to say " throw or slide something down ". For this reason also the awnings is known as " " tent, because the rain slides down water.

carrizal

Carrizal-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is an English noun meaning " site where abundant Reed "

casacancha

Casacancha-is a village in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " cash-sha ghen-cha " that means " poultry made with thorns " (41 thorny branches;.

casaneta

Casaneta-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " cash-sha-ni-ta " that means " to my spine ".

casapampa

Casapampa-is a village in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " cash-sha-pam-pa " that means " 34 thorn plain;

casapata

Casapata-is a village in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name is a derivative of one of the following two phrases kech-huas " cash-sha-pa-ta " or " cash-sha pat-taj " The first means " it's thorn " (puts as a direct complement any part of thorn) The second means " 34 thorn plateau;.

casca

Casca-is a village in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " gheshe " that is the name kech-hua of a plant relative of the maguey.

cascabamba

Cascabamba-is a village in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua "ghesh-ghe-pam-pa " that means " 34 gheshe plain;

cascabamba hacienda

Cascabamba finance-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua "ghesh-ghe-pam-pa hacienda ". Means " hacienda gesh-ghe 34 plain;

casgabamba

Casgabamba-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua "cash-gha-pam-pa " that means " it has been plain "

cashacoto

Cashacoto-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " cash-sha ghot-toj " that means " that pile up thorn ".

cashayo

Cashayo-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " cash-sha-yoj " that means " with spines ".

catacorane

Catacorane-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua "ghat-ta-cur-ra ni " that means " I gave you already covered or sheltered ".

ccaccapunco

Ccaccapunco-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of one of the following two phrases kech-huas " ghaj - ja pun-cu " or " ghagh-gha pun-cu ". The first says " door cold " and the second, " 34 Creek gate.

ccara

Ccara.-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the word kech-hua " ghar-ra " which as an adjective means " peeled " and as noun means " 34 skin;

cebadabata

Cebadabata-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is a derivative of the Castilian 34 noun; barley " to which has been added the suffix kech-hua " pa-ta " making it " barley-pa-ta " that means " of barley ".

cebadapampa

Cebadapampa-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is a derivative of the Castilian 34 noun; barley " to which has been added the noun kech-hua " pam-pa " making it " barley-pam-pa " that means " 34 barley plain;

cerochacan

CeroChacan-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua "gher-ru-cha can " that means " possibly it will be wood ".

chacabamba

Chacabamba.-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " chagh-ghay pam-pa " that means " plain where removed (water) " or " plain where " is loaded. Rather, plain where puts the load to the mules.

chacahua

Chacahua.-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of one of the two following sentences kech-huas: " shagh-gha-huan " or " shagh-gha-huan " want to say " with my 34 snail shell; or " with the 34 snail shell.

chacahuaya

Chacahuaya-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of one of the two following sentences kech-huas: " shagh-gha-huan-yaj " or " shagh-gha-huan-yaj " want to say " even with my 34 snail shell; or " up to shell snail 34 con.la;.

chacahuayo

Chacahuayo-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " shagh-gha huay-yu " that means " plant 34 Paua Shell. Name that, possibly, known in that place to the vines. In reference to the way in which these plants grow. In other places known as " llagh-ghe tum-may ". That means " root that turns ". With vertical axis.

chacamayo

Chacamayo-is a village in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " chagh-ghay may-yu, " that means " River where removed water ".

chacana

Chacana.-the name of a political party. Derives from the verb does Chang-gay does that means do remove a fluid with a container do.???? When replacing the do and do end of this verb by the particle do na do, gets the word do chagh-gha-na do indicating the container with which the fluid is removed.???? Indiscriminate use has this word become Chacana.

chacana

Chacana.-is a village in the Department of Ancash in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " chagh-ghan-na " that means " it container liquid " or any mixture that can be managed with a container.

chacantape

Chacantape-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " shagh-ghan-ta-pis " that means " also its 34 snail shell.

chacapalca

Chacapalca-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " 34 chagh-gha-pair-gha; that means " drawing water for few ".

chacaray

Chacaray-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " chagh-gha-ray " that means " it continues to draw water ".

chacaray hacienda

Chacaray finance-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " chagh-gha-ray hacienda ". It means " finance continues to draw water ".

chacatachacarhuasi

ChacataChacarhuasi-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " chagh-ghay-ta chagh-ghar huaji ". It means " House extruding, drawing water ".

chacllanca

Chacllanca-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " 34 chaj-llan-gha; that means " it goes has roofing ".

chacllanca hacienda

Chacllanca finance-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " chaj-llan-gha hacienda " that means " gonna roofing hacienda ".

chacuas

Chacuas-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " chak-huas " that means " old ".

chaga

Chaga-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the verb kech-hua " chagh-ghay " that means " lifting some liquid or substance with a container ".

chagacorrall

Chagacorrall-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua (Spanish) " chagh-ghay poultry " that means " poultry where removed (liquid or substance) ".

chaglla

Chaglla.-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " chagh-ghay-lla " that means " it takes just (liquid or substance) ".

chahuaña

Chahuana-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " chau-huall-lla " that means " all 34 raw;

chahuarane

Chahuarane-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua or " " chau-huar-ran that means " is still crude, say ".

chaipi

Chaipi.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " tsai-pis " that means " that also " or " that also ".

chakepay

Chakepay-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " chak-ki-pay " that means " go to foot ".

challa

Challa-is a village in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name is a derivative of the adjective kech-hua " shall-lla " that means " wet 34, " 34 soaked;

challa hacienda

A village of the Department of Cuzco the Peru this challa finance.-s name is a derivative of the phrase adjective kech-hua " shall-lla hacienda " that means " hacienda soaked ".

challabamba

Challabamba.-is a village in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " shall-call pam-pa " that means " 34 damp plain;

challabamba hacienda

Challabamba finance.-is a village in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " shall-call pam-pa hacienda " that means " hacienda damp plain ".

challachalla

Challachalla.-is a village in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name is a derivative of the adjective kech-hua " shall-lla shall-lla " that means " very wet 34, " 34 very humid;

chamaca

Chamaca-is a town in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name is derived from the phrase kech-hua tsay-ma-ca, which means that I am.

chamana

Shaman-is a village in the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " cham-ma-na " name with which referred to a set of charcoal formed by small, thin dry branches. Or a phrase that says " cha-man - na " that means already should arrive.

chamancaya

Chamancaya-is a town in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua tsay-man cay-ya, which means there are or so we are or we are of that part.

chamancaya

Chamancaya-is a town in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua tsay-man cay-ya, which means there are or so we are or we are of that part.

chamancaya hacienda

Chamancaya finance-is a town in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua tsay-man cay-ya hacienda which means Treasury there are

chamancaya hacienda

Chamancaya finance-is a town in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua tsay-man cay-ya hacienda which means Treasury there are

chamara

Chamara.-is a village in the Department of Ica, their name, possibly comes from the phrase kech-hua " chai-ma ar-ri " or its contraction which is " chai-ma-ri " that means " it is that " or " another is that "

champacancha

Champacancha-is a town in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua tsam-pa ghen-cha which means poultry made with Marsh mud.

champacocha

Champacocha-is a town in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua team-pa ghoc-cha meaning water eye with with grass surface. Or refers to a marsh.

chan

Chan-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is derived from the verb kech-hua " chay " that means " get " and " 34 chan; you mean " " arrives.

chanca

Chanca-is a town in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name, possibly is a derivative of the noun kech-hua chan-ka which means leg or the conjugation of the verb chay which means get and chan-gha means going has become

chanca

Chanca-is a town in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name, possibly is a derivative of the noun kech-hua chan-ka which means leg or the conjugation of the verb chay which means get and chan-gha means going has become

chanca hacienda

A village of the Department of Cuzco the Peru this chanca finance.-s name, possibly, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua chan-ca finance finance, ode leg meaning the phrase chan-gha hacienda which means property that is has become.

chancarane

Chancarane.-is a town in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua chance-ca-ra nor does tell that you've jumped chan-gha-raj or what goes has newly arriving or going has arrive, still.

chancarani

Chancarani.-is a town in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name is also derived from the phrase kech-hua chance-ca-ra nor does tell that you've jumped chan-gha-raj or what goes has newly arriving or going has arrived, still.

chancarpampa

Chancarpampa-is a town in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua chan-car pam-pa which means plain of the jump.

chancay

Chancay.-the meaning of this name is also understandable if you consider migration of the Chavin culture from Huanter, therefore, is derived from the quechua phrase " chan-cay - lla " that means " it is one step " and this meaning coincides with the characteristic of the place: from the heights of Pasamayo, being in Chancay, the sea looks very closely, so it seems that a jump I could get to it. And this concept in quechua is expressed as " chan-cay - lla ".

chanchacap

Chanchacap-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " shan-sha cap-tin " that means " because there are 34 Ember; or " because there are 34 hot material;.

chanchán

Chan Chan-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is derived from one of the following two phrases kech-huas " shan-shan " that means " it is hot ".or " chan chan " meaning " it arrives, gets ". Most likely to be the first, by the warm place.

changuillo

Changuillo.-is a village in the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua changh-gha ill-llo that means " looks set to reach 34.

chañi

Chañi-is a town in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua cha-ni, which means my arrival

chañi

Chañi-is a town in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua cha-ni, which means my arrival

chapi

Chapi-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " tsay-pis " that means " also that ".

chaqueylla

Chaqueylla-is a town in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua chak-kill-lla which means only the foot or sentence shac-cay-lla which means only absorvelo.

chaqui

Chaqui.-is a town in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the noun kech-hua chak-ki which means foot.

chaqui pupquio

Chaqui Pupquio.-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " 34 puk-yu chak-ki; that means " ojo de agua footnote ".

chaquicocha

Chaquicocha.-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " chak-ki ghoch-cha " that means " 34 foot lagoon; or " enlagunado floor " .

charicucho

Charicucho-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " tsar-ri-cut-tsu " that means " does not grab it me " or " not me seized it " .

charque

Jerkey-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " char-ki " that means " meat dry "

chaspaya

Chaspaya-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " 34 chas-pa-ya; that means " " burn it superficially

chasquitambo

Chasquitambo-is a village in the Department of Ancash in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " chas-ki tam-pu " that means " posada is where received 34.

chaucayan

Chaucayan-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the verb kech-hua " chauc-cay " that means age (a thing). And " 34 chauc-cay-yan; It is the right verb conjugation in the present indicative third-person. That is, " already is being very used " or " it is ageing ". So when a shoe that is already widely used is said " chau-ca-na "

chaucha

Chaucha-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " chau-cha " It is the name of a tuber that only occurs in the puna (usually)

chaucha pata

Chaucha leg-is a town in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the noun kech-hua chau-cha which is the name of a tuber which is produced in the puna.

chaucha pata

Chaucha leg-is a town in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the noun kech-hua chau-cha which is the name of a tuber which is produced in the puna.

chauchilla

Chauchilla-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " chau-hua shill-lla " that means " clay raw ". Name that is, possibly, the whitish appearance of the surface of the place.

chaupi

Chaupi.-is a town in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name is a derivative of the adjective kech-hua chau-pi which means middle zone of a place.

chaupichaca

Chaupichaca-is a town in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua chaupi tsak-ka which means bridge in the middle.

chaupichaca

Chaupichaca-is a town in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua chaupi tsak-ka which means bridge in the middle.

chaupichaca

Chaupichaca-is a town in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua chaupi tsak-ka which means bridge in the middle.

chaupichura

Chaupichura-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " chau-pi shur-ra " that means " jora of the average " .

chaupimayo

Chaupimayo-is a town in the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua chau-pi may-yu, which means River in the middle.

chaupimonte

Chaupimonte-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " chau-pi mun - ti " that means " forest in the middle. "34 Chau-PI; is " average " and " mun - ti " It is " forest " .

chayapampa

Chayapampa-is a town in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua tsay-yaj pampa plain meaning is there.

chayapampa

Chayapampa-is a town in the Department of Cuzco in Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua tsay-yaj pampa plain meaning is there.

chaychapampa

Chaychapampa.-is a town of the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua would tsay-cha-pam-pa which means do that will be plain, as would.????

chaychapampa

Chaychapampa.-is a town of the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua would tsay-cha-pam-pa which means do that will be plain, as would.????

chaynani

Chaynani.-is a village of the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua would tsay nan - nor which means do thats way do.????

chaynani

Chaynani.-is a village of the Department of Cuzco the Peru this name, possibly, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua would tsay nan - nor which means do thats way do.????

chicchitara

Chicchitara.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " tsic-tsit-tar-raj " that means " first to bat "

chicchitara hacienda

Chicchitara finance-is a village in the Department of Ica, its name comes from the name kech-hua "TSIC-tsit-tar-raj 34 finance; that means "Hacienda first to bat "

chichucancha

Chichucancha-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " chich-chu ghench-cha " that means " court or field pregnant " .

chichucancha

Chichucancha-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " chich-chu ghench-cha " that means " court or field pregnant " .

chilcapuquio

Chilcapuquio-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " shill-ca puk-yu " that means " ojo de agua of the 34 shillca;,. "Shill-ca " It is a noun that referred to a native plant of those places.

chilico

Chilico-is a village in the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is a derivative of the adjective kech-hua " shill-lli-co " that is known to people from the town of Celendín, Cajamarca

chillo

Chillo.-is a village in the Department of Ica, its name comes from the noun kech-hua " shill-llu " that means " a 34.

chillo hacienda

I chillo finance.-is a town in the Department of Ica, its name comes from the name kech-hua "Shill-llu 34 finance; that means "Hacienda 34 nail; or "Finance a " .

chimpapampa

Chimpapampa-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " tsim-pa-pam-pa " that means " the side opposite plain " .

china

China-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the adjective kech-hua " chin-na " that means " female " .

chinchobamba

Chinchobamba-is a village in the Department of Ancash in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " chin-chu pam-pa ". "Chin-hu " It is an herb used in meals. The indicated phrase, repeated many times has become Chinchobamba.

chiquichal

Chiquichal-is a village in the Department of La Libertad of Peru East name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " chik-ki-cha all-lli " that means " it will be good to hate him ". Referring to something very unwanted.

chiquilbamba

Chiquilbamba-is a village in the Department of La Libertad of Peru East name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " chk-ki-lla pam-pa " that means " 34 unkind plain;

chiquiten

Chiquiten-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " chik-ki-tsin " that means " you do hate ".

chirimoyo

Cherimoya-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru. This name is the noun that the tree that produces the Cherimoya is known.

chirimoyo

Cherimoya-is a village of the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is derived from the name of a fruit tree that produces the Cherimoya.

chochoca

Chochoca.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the noun kech-hua " tsot-tsogh-gha " is the name with which the natives to the ripe corn parboiled and dried. This Spanish name is chochoca

choclo

Corn-is the name that is known in Spanish to the corn. It is derived from the noun kech-hua " tsoj-llo " that also refers to the corn.

choco

Choco-is a village in the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " tsogh-gho " name with that particular tree is known.

chocope

Chocope.-is a village in the Department of La Libertad of Peru East name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " tsogh-gho-pis " that means " also the tsogh-gho ".

chocos

Cuttlefish-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the noun kech-hua " shogh-ghosh " that means " Reed "

chocos

Callana-Cruz is a town in the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua "Callana 34 cross;. It is a phrase that indicates a place where there has been a cross or have any affinity or relationship with remains of ceramic pots.

chocotranca

Chocotranca-is a village in the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " tsogh-gho tran-ca " that means " tsogh-gho 34 gate. or " rununder step made of tsogh-gho ".

choglia

Choglia-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " tsoj-lla. A tent made of thin and round wood is known with this name. Covered with straw. There are girls and big. These latest known them as " mam-man tsoj-lla 34, which means " I carp mother ".

choloque

Choloque-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a noun that referred to a shrub that produces a fruit which is used to wash wool.

choloque

Choloque-is a village in the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is a derivative of the noun that referred to a tree that has fruit that are used to wash wool.

chongoyape

Chongoyape.-is a village in the Department of La Libertad of Peru East name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " shongh-ghoy-ya-pis " that means " also the bizarre ".

chonta

Chonta-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a noun kech-hua designating a black and hard wood tree.

chua

Chua-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the adjective kech-hua " chuy - already " that means " " clean, " Crystal 34, " 34 transparent;. Referring generally to the water.

chuan

Chuan-is a village in the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is a derivative of the verb kech-hua " shui-yay " that means " wait ". "34 Shuy-yan; means " it (or she) expected ".

chuchugyoy

Chuchugyoy-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " chuch-chuj-yoj " " that means with their breastfed ".

chuchusquea

Chuchusquea-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " chuch-chus-ki-ya " that means " we suck " or " we've sucked ".

chugay

Chugay.-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " shogh-ghay " which means. " comfort " .

chugay hacienda

Chugay hacienda-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " shogh-ghay hacienda " that means " hacienda consuelo " or " finance, consuelo "

chugchu

Chugchu-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " chush-chu " that means " 34 puppy;

chugollpa

Chugollpa-is a village in the Department of La Libertad of Peru East name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " shogh-gho-pa-lla " that means " I am absorbing a little 34. Also in this sentence sounds " pa " and " lla " they have been swapped into " shogh-gho - lla do pa 34.; What becomes " chugollpa "

chugur

Chugur.-is a village in the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is a derivative of the verb kech-hua " shogh-ghoy " that means " absorb ". And it is derived from the word " shogh-ghur " indicating the action of absorb. It can refer to smoking.

chugurbamba

Chugurbamba-is a village in the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " shogh-ghur pam-pa " that means " plain where it is absorbed " or " plain where there is smoking " .

chulla

Chulla-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is derived from the adjective kech-hua " tsull-lla " that means " couple " .

chumaca

Chumaca-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " 34 shum-magh-gha; that means " something cute ". Referring to something that will have go through a process, chuncoroco

Chuncoroco-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " shon-gho rogh-ghoj " that means " that hurts the heart " or " hewing the " heart.

chunuhuayo

Chunuhuayo-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " chun-nu huay-yu " that means " plant starch ". Posiblemente refers to an existing plant in the Peruvian Andes, and that there must exist, which has the stem of white and soft consistency.

chunyay

Chunyay-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the adjective kech-hua " tsun-yay "

which means silent, solitary.

chupan

Suck-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the kech-hua " chup-pa 34 suetantivo; that means tail (41 animal; It is not an energetic way of saying it, as the previous. Is only a statement, therefore, the " " " pan " It is not marked. And by putting the " 34 n; in the end becomes a phrase that says " 34 tail; But, also, could be a derivative of the verb " shup-pay " that means " " rub, " scrubbing " (41 hand; When it conjugates for the third person in the present indicative, is " shup-pan ". This last word could become suck.

chupapatac

Chupapatac-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of one of the following phrases kech-huas: " chup-pa-pa-taj " or " chup-pa pat-taj ". The first is to say " will not be by 34 tail; and the second says " 34 tail plateau;. Or, also, could be " chup-pa pat-CT " that means " 34 tail seat;

chupán

Chupan.-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " chup-pan " that means " it is its tail ". Energetic way of saying it. Sound " pan " deepens the " " .

chupán

Chupan.-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " chup-pan " that means " it is its tail ". Energetic way of saying it. Sound " pan " deepens the " " .

chuquique

Chuquique-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " 34 tsuk-kui-ki; that means " your hat " .

chuquitambo

Chuquitambo.-is a village in the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " shuk-kuy tam-pu " that means " tambo to " or " tambo where one wears " or " gets " .

churacan

Churacan-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the verb kech-hua " chur-ray " that means " put ". The subject performs the action. The one who suffers the action is another. Derived from this verb is " chur-ra-cay " reflexive verb, indicating that the subject is put in a place, occupies a place. And " chur-rac-can " It is the combination of this reflexive verb for the third person, in the present indicative. This conjugation is born Churacan.

chururo

Chururo-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " tsur-rur-ru ". Which is known ice plates that dawn on the surface of the empozadas waters in the cold weather,

colcas

Colcas.-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " gholl-ghâsh " that means " says it's troja " or " says it's barn 34.

collota

Cataracts-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " 34 gholl-llo-ta; name with which is known to the Pebble stone.

collpamonte

Collpamonte-is a village in the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " gholl-pa mun - ti " that means " the colpar forest ".

colpa

Colpa-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " gholl-pa ". Which is known where there is salt that emerges from the ground. Those who speak Spanish to know these places as you colpares.

colpa seca

A village of the Department of La Libertad of Peru colpa seca-Es. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " gholl-pash-shi ca " that means " they say that I am a colpar ".

colpas

Colpas.-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " gholl-pash " which means says that it is a colpar.

conchamarca

Conchamarca.-is a village in the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ghon-cha mar-ca " that means " 34 quagmire region;.

conococha

Conococha-this name is derived from the quechua phrase " ghon-no ghoch-cha " that means " lagoon warm ". Meaning that can be understood if you consider the migration of members of the Chavin de Huantar culture toward the coast.

conocuarmi

Conocuarmi-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ghon-noj huar - mi " that means " female warm, "

contortoglia

Contortoglia-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " cun-tur toj-lla " that means " 34 condor nest;

coricancha

Coricancha is a construction in the city of Cuzco. Construction of the time of the Incas. And what Coricancha? They say it means Golden Temple because it is derived from the phrase Carolinaa ghor-ri ghech-hua which means siege of gold, as ghor-ri means gold, and ghech-hua means siege. But, possibly Carolinaa phrase which originates the name isn't ghor-ri ghech-hua, but ghor-rij ghech-hua which means siege collecting, because ghor-rij means that collects which brings together. This means that the fence was a place of meetings. I.e. Coricancha means place of meetings

cruz de callana

Callana-Cruz is a town in the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua "Callana 34 cross;. It is a phrase that indicates a place where there has been a cross or have any affinity or relationship with remains of ceramic pots.

cruz jirca

Cruz jirca-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " cruz jir-ca " that means " height or cerro de la cruz ".

cruz punta

Cruz punta-is a town in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is derived from the Spanish phrase " 34 cross tip; expressed in form of kech-hua or the phrase kech-hua " cruz pun-ta-ta " that means " cross later ".

cruzcag

Cruzcag-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " cruz caj " that means " where there is cross ". Or, fate, of a similar phrase that is " cross cagh-gha " that means " Yes, there was cross ".

cuchuchoni

Cuchuchoni-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " cuch-chuch-chau ni " that means " in the corner, say ".

cuchuchoni

Cuchuchoni-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " cuch-chuch-chau ni " that means " in the corner, say ".

cuchumbaya

Cuchumbaya-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " cuch-chun-pa-yaj " that means " up to 34 ends; or " up to 34 corners;.

curayoc

Curayoc-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ghor-ra-yoj " that means " with root ".

curo

CURO-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " cur-ru " that means " worm "

duraznuyoc

Duraznuyoc-is a village in the Department of Ica, its name comes from a phrase kech-hua, or better said, is a phrase kech-hua where changed the sound of the " (j) " of the " 34 c;. 34, Duraznuyoj " means has peach

gaga

Gaga-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " ghagh-gha " that means " broken "

gallo rumi

Gallo Rumi-is a village in the Department of Ica, its name comes, possibly, the name kech-hua " huall-pa rum - my " that means " hen 34 stone; (e) indicates a place. And this because kech-Hua animals names are generic and do not have female and say " huall-pa " It is referring to all animals of its kind, gallinaceous or poultry, without indicating the sex.

gallu

Gallu is derived from the word la'kech-hua " gall-llu " that means " 34 language;

gantupata

Gantupata-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of one of the following phrases kech-huas " ghan - your pat-taj " or " ghan-tu-pa-ta ". The first says " 34 ghantu plateau; and the second says " it's the ghantu 34, " as belonging to the ghantu ". "Ghantu " It is a flower.

gargoyan

Gargoyan-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the verb kech-hua " ghar-ghoy " that means " dismiss 34, " throw out ". And " 34 ghar-ghoy-yan; means " " dismisses them, " " throw them out Referring to living beings.

gashapampa

Gashapampa-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " gash-sha-pam-pa ". Referred to as " gash-sha " a set of small dry branches and as " pam-pa " a " plain ". Po so the phrase says " plain of dry branches ".

gochapampa

Gochapampa-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ghoch-cha-pam-pa " that means " 34 Lake plain.

goyllarisquisga, goillarisquisga, goyllarisquizga

Goyllarisquisga, Goillarisquisga, Goyllarisquizga-are names of towns located in the Department of Cerro de Pasco. In the past, also in Cajamarca had a village or a mine with similar name. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " ghoy-llor ish-quish-gha " that means " has fallen a star ". "Ghoy-llor " means " star " e " ish-quish-gha " means " has fallen ". This name was created by the very particular influence of those places. They are mining areas. Formerly miners who went to those places said that at night you could distinguish small glare on the surface of the soil and if one was to dig in that place you could find small pieces of gold. So was this activity that, when they arrived, the mining companies forbidden to continue it.

huacachina

Huacachina.-name of a lagoon of Ica that derives from the quechua phrase " huagh-ghat-tsi-na " that means place where makes cry, referring possibly to seepage of water in this place, from the deepening of the wetlands of the heights. This phrase, repeated many times, has become Huacachina

huacaquina

Huacaquina-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " huagh-ghay-jin-na " you mean " albeit crying "

huacatinco

Huacatinco.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " huagh-ghaj tin-coj " that means " he reaches he who cries " or " what reaches he who cries "

huachac monte

Huachac Monte-is a village in the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " huach-chaj mount " that means " mount that it originates ". This reference, possibly, to the fact that in these places, periodically, you can see moisture on the slopes. Humidity coming from the wetlands of the heights.

huachacc

Huachacc.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the verb kech-hua " huach-chay " that means " giving birth; 34, " " originate, " stand ".

huachacc hacienda

Huachacc finance-is a village in the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua "Huach-chaj 34 finance; that means "Hacienda that it originates " or "Hacienda giving birth to ".

huacho

Huacho-is the name of a city located to the North of Lima. It is derived from the quechua adverb " huac-chau " that means " beyond ". This is justified if you consider that there have passed people who explored places, of Chavin de Huantar, and to see in the distance something that interested them or something that caught his attention immediately exclaimed " huac-chau! huac-chau! " Or " beyond! beyond! ". And this adverb of place, quechua, huac-chau to be repeated many times has become Huacho.

huagaj

Huagaj-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the verb kech-hua " huagh-ghay " that means " cry ". And " huagh-ghaj " It is " that cries ". The result is Huagaj.

huahua

Huahua comes from the quechua Word " huau-hua " that means baby, kid.

huailacayán

Huailacayan-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " huay-lla cay-yan " phrase indicating that it is an area with much grass or any relative of the grass.

huamachuco

Huamachuco-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " huam-maj tsuc-cu " that means " hat after long " or occasionally " " hat. Referring to a person who uses hat from time to time or using it only sometimes. Or never before had seen him wearing hat.

huaman

Huaman.-is a village in the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " huam-man " name which is known to the Kestrel or serrano Falcon.

huaman marca

Huaman brand-is a village in the Department of La Libertad of Peru East name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " huam-man mark " that means " region of the Kestrel or Hawk " .

huanaco

Huanaco.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the verb kech-hua " huan-nay " that means " need ". And when you want to say " I need " It says " huan-cu-nac " accentuating the " u " end, and when you ask " do I need? " It says " huan-cu-nac " accentuating the " " " nac "

huapi

Huapi-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the interjection kech-hua " huap-pi! ". It is an exclamation point to warn poultry against the lookout for predators, especially the Eagle.

huaquilla

Huaquilla.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the pronoun kech-hua " huak-ki " that means us, but separated from the others, like the others.

huaracane

Huaracane-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ni huar-rac-ca " that means " honda archery, say "

huaracane hacienda

Huaracane finance-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua-Castilian " hacienda huar-rac-AC ni " or " finance honda archery, say "

huaraco

Huaraco.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the verb kech-hua " huar-ray " or the name " huar-rac-ca ". The verb " huar-ray " " means dawn ". When you want to say " I wake " It says " huar-rac-cu " and when you want to ask " I wake? " It says " huar-rac-cu ". The first sentence emphasizing the " u " end and the second emphasizing the " " sound " 34 rac; The repetition of these phrases may have come to Huaraco. The name " huar-rac-ca. " It is the honda. "Huar-rac-ca " You can have become Huaraco to eliminate him to end.

huaranco

Huaranco-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase question kech-hua " huar-ran-cu " that means " now it dawns? "

huaraz

Huaraz-this name is derived from the quechua phrase does huar-rasgh - gha does or do huar-rash - sha which means do already dawned do.?????? The phrase does huar-rash - sha do becomes Huaraz by changing the do sha do by do cha do.?????? If this happens the meaning of the sentence changes completely to a phrase of acceptance which accepts that the previous sound expresses something existing. And in this case is saying do if it is Huarash do.?? Huarash repeated many times becomes Huaraz. This has happened, possibly by a curious fact that happens in the city of Huaraz.: in this city, before it gets the clarity of dawn already you can see the reflection of the Sun on the tip of the Huascarán. Seeing this, people who already stood says: already dawned!

huaricunca

Huaricunca-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " huar-rij cun-ca " that means " neck hot ". "Huar-rij " is " hot " and " cun-ca " It is " neck " .

huarina

Huarina.-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " huar-Rhine-na " that means " it is already hot ".

huarinjoco

Huarinjoco-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase question kech-hua " huar-Rhine juc-cu " that means " is another who is hot? "

huascacorrall

Huascacorrall-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua (mesclada with Castilian) " huas-ca 34 poultry; that means " 34 rope corral; "Huas-ca " is " 34 rope;

huascarán

Huascarán.-the meaning of this name is do remains such as rope does and is derived from the name do huas-ca which means do rope do, name as by adding the particle do ray do becomes the verbo-frase do huas-car-ray which means do remain such as rope do.???????????? If conjugates this verb in the present indicative, referring to the third person is does huas-car-ran which means remains such as rope, of course referring to the mountain range, therefore the natives didn't know the chain but they knew the rope.??

huascata

Huascata-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " 34 huas-cat-ta; that means " the rope ". But that phrase in the order form.

huashcayan

Huashcayan-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " huash-sha cay-yan " that means " they are distant ".

huasipampa

Huasipampa-is a village in the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " huaj-ji pam-pa " that means " plain address " or " 34 House plain;.

huata

Huata.-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua: " huat-ta " that means " year 34. Or the following two verbs: " huat-tay " pointed sound " tay " that means " tie ". And when it is conjugated in the first person present indicative is " huat-ta " and it means " " I work is clamped. It differs from " year " because the last sound, " 34 ta; is pointed. Or verb " hua-tay " with the first pointed sound whose conjugate mode indicative present for the first person is " hua-ta " emphasized the two sounds, means " I the Cryo " or " I so care 34.

huatagua

Huatagua-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru. This name is derived from one of the following three phrases kech-huas: " " " huat-ta-huan huat-ta-huan 34, " 34 huat-ta-huan; that means " with my 34 year; the first. "Year " the second, " which is breeding or care " the third.

huataspampa

Huataspampa-is a village in the Department of Ancash in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " huat-tash-sha pam-pa " that means " 34 moored pampa;.

huataspampa

Huataspampa-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of one of the following phrases kech-huas " hua-tash-sha pam-pa " or " huat-tash-sha pam-pa ". The first means " careful plain or bred " and the second means " 34 moored plain; The two sentences kech-huas are similar. They could lead to confusion. Therefore it is necessary to point out that the first starts with sound " hua " " a " pointed. On the other hand the second begins with sound " huat " finished in " t " and the " " without accent.

huayra punco

Huayra Punco-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " huay-ra pun-cu " that means " 34 wind door.

huaytapata

Huaytapata.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " huay-ta pat-taj " that means " 34 flower plateau;.

hueco

Hollow-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " huic-cu " name that referred to a small archaeological site in the form of a small snail. There is the myth that this object flies and when it does it sounds. Interestingly when this sound and aims in the surroundings, you can find him.

huequencchocha

Huequencchocha-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " huegh-ghen ghoch-cha " that means " his 34 tear lagoon;

huerta cucho

Huerta Cucho-is a village in the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " Orchard cuch-chu " that means " Rincón de la huerta ".

huicapa

Huicapa-is a village in the Department of La Libertad of Peru East name is a derivative of the verb kech-hua " huic-cap-pay " that means " throw away " and " huic-cap-pa " means " I threw it 34.

huichay

Huichay-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the verb kech-hua " huit-tsay " that means " climb a hillside " " walking up "

huilapaccha

Huilapaccha-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " huil - paj-tsa " that means " cataract idle ". "Huil - " is " idle " u " idle " and " paj-tsa " It is " 34 cataract;

huinac

Huinac-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the verb kech-hua " huin-nay " that can mean " grow " or " lend something to a container ". And " huin-naj " indicates which grows or check

huisco

Huisco-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the adjective kech-hua " huis-cu " that means " bisojo " Kech-Hua say " huis-cu " the person suffering from strabismus.

humay

Humay.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the verb kech-hua " hum-may " that means " wearing head ". This because " hum-ma " It's head.

ichuna

Ichuna-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ich-chu-na " that means " longer straw ". As " ich-chu " the puna straw is known.

ichupampa

Ichupampa.-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ich-chu pam-pa " that means " the ichu 34 pampa; or " 34 straw pampa;.

illaparaj

Illaparaj-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ill-llap-couple-raj " that means " it is in position of shooting " or " this continuously shooting ".

imanta

Imanta-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase question kech-hua " ta-man-im " you mean " what part or thing of it? "

intihuasi

Intihuasi.-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " in - ti huas-Yes " or " in - ti huaj-ji " that means " House 34 solar; or " casa del sol ".

iscurrume

Iscurrume-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the verb kech-hua " ish-cuy " you want to say " " shell. " Ish-cur-rum-mi " you mean " " I have seeded. " Ish-cur-rum-mi " becomes Iscurrume

ishcoc

Ishcoc-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative, too, from the verb kech-hua " ish-cuy ". " Ish-coj " It is " which reels ". " Ish-coj " becomes Ishcoc

ispac

ISPAC.-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the verb kech-hua " ish-pay " that means " urinate ". " Ish-paj " It is " which urine ". " Ish-paj " becomes Ispac

ispag

Ispag-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative, too, from the verb kech-hua " ish-pay ". " Ish-pa-gha " It says " I if that Pee ". " Ish-company pagh-gha " means " Yes, that urinating ". Of these two words originates Ispag

isquirpa

Isquirpa-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " ish-kir-pa " that means " walking, falling, rising 34. "Walk fits ".

jaguay chico

Jaguay guy-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " jau-hua-tsi-cu " that means " rinse it " or " command enjuagar2. The verb kech-hua 2jau-huay " It means " " rinse.

jaguay grande

Jaguay Grande-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the kech-hua-Spanish phrase " 34 large jau-huay; you want to say " rinse grande ".

jahuacocha

Jahuacocha-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " jau-huaj ghoch-cha " that means " Lagoon which rinse ".

janagua

Janagua-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " 34 jan-na-huan; that means " with my back ".

janata

Janata-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " 34 jan-na-ta; Phrase which is supplement direct from a sentence. "Jan-na " means " my back " or " on me 34.

janca

"Jan-ca " It is an adverb kech-hua which means " all ". But refers to the integrity of something, to a mass. It does not concern to pluralities. If it is " all " concerning a plurality is " llap-pan "

janchayane

Janchayane-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " jan-chay - ya ni ". That means " say that we took him 34 hand;.

jarachacra

Jarachacra-is a village in the Department of Ancash in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " jar-ra chac-ra " that means " 34 corn farm.

jatun chacra

Jatun farm-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " jat-tun farm " that means " 34 large farm. This because " jat-tun " It is an adjective that means large.

jatun sequia

Jatun drought-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name leads to think that it could be a derivative of the phrase " jat-tun drought " that would mean " " dry high season A mixture of Spanish with kech-hua. However if analysed from the point of the grammar kech-hua is a derivative of the phrase " jat-tun tsej-yaj " that means " great greenery ". Phrase which coincides with the greenery of the area.

jatunhuasi

Jatunhuasi-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " jat-tun huas-si " that means " House big!. "Jat-34 tun; It is an adjective that means " large " and " huas-Yes " It is " " House.

jecanga

Jecanga-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the verb kech-hua " jekh-ghay " that means falling. And when we say jekh-ghang-gha is saying is going to hurl. Possibly the town is located in a place very high and steep.

jircán

Jircan.-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " jir-can " that means " its Summit " or verb " jir-cay " that means " elevate is 34, " reach the Summit ". The conjugation of the verb in the third person present indicative is " jir-can " that means " you will reach the Summit ". If you want to say " already reach the Summit " It says " jir-can-na ".

jucusbamba

Jucusbamba-is a village in the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is a derivative of the frase-pregunta kech-hua " juc-cush pam-pa " that means " do says that the other is a plain? "

la colpa

La colpa-is a village in the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " lagh-gha gholl-pa " that means " colpar without promontories ".

la yapana

The Yapana.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " yap-pa-na " that means " that adds ". For this reason the word " yapa " It is widely used in trade.

la yapana hacienda

The Yapana finance.-is a village in the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua "Yap-pa-na Hacienda " that it can be translated as the "Hacienda that he adds "

la yunta

The team-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru. This name, although it is derived from the verb kech-hua " 34 tay yun; that means " attach by 34 heads; is already Castilian because it indicates the union of two cattle for ploughing

lacabamba

Lacabamba.-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " lagh-gha-pam-pa " that means " pampa flat " " no nose 34, " 34 cream;

lacaynioc

Lacaynioc.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " lagh-ghay-nor-yoj " which means, one might say, " making it mine ". "Lagh-ghay " means " " paste, " attach ". "Lagh-ghay-ni " accentuating the " (i) " final, means " it stuck me " " it adhered to me 34. And if you add " yoj " It's like adding " ". This phrase has become Lacaynioc

lampanin

Lampanin-is a village in the Department of Ancash in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " lampa nin " that means " he says that he is lampa "

limacucho

Limacucho-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a drerivado of the phrase kech-hua " lim-maj cuch-chu " that means " corner of Lima "

llacón

Llacón.-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " llac - " Name that referred to a white flesh and sweet-tasting tuber and that is eaten raw. Very good for the control of high blood pressure.

llama rumi

A village of the Department of Ancash in the Peru this called Rumi-is name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " call-ma rrum - mi " that means " stone called "

llamacancha

Llamacancha.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " call-ma ghench-cha " that means " llama corral ".

llamachupan

Llamachupan-is a village in the Department of Ancash in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " call-map-pa chup-pan " that means " flame tail " therefore, " 34 tail; kech-hua says " chup-pa ". And in this language when a " is added to a noun (n) " in the end is how to add " ". Or " 34 tail;

llamachupán hacienda

Llamachupan finance-is a village in the Department of Ancash in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " call-map-pa chup-pan hacienda " that means "Hacienda 34 flame tail;.

llanqui

Tito-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the kech-hua " llangh-ghe 34 sustanivo; name with which is known to the templates.

llanten

Plantain-is a village in the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " llan-tin " that is the name of a healing herb.

llata

Llata.-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is derived from the diminutive form of an adjective kech-hua. "Rat-ta " that means " lame ". Its diminutive is " lla-ta " that means " cojito ".

llaupuy

Llaupuy-is a village in the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " llan-puy " that means " is " suavecito " " is lisito ". Is derived from the adjective kech-hua " llan-pu " that means " smooth 34, " 34 soft; To become " llaupuy 34, " 34 n; following to the letter " " It has been changed by " u ". Possibly, by difficulties in pronunciation.

llorayaco

Llorayaco-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative, possibly the phrase kech-hua " yur-raj yak-cu " that means " water white 34. Or question " do yur-raj-ya-cu? " That means " I'm emblanqueciendo? "

lluco

Lluco.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the diminutive form of the adjective kech-hua " rogh-gho " that means that you don't have hair or has no Horn. This diminutive is " lluc-cu "

lluraccaca

Lluraccaca-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " yur-raj ghagh-gha " that want to say " broken white 34.

lucma

Lucma.-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " luc-ma " that means " 34 lucuma;.

lucma hacienda

Lucma finance.-is a village in the Department of Ancash in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " luc-ma hacienda " that means the " hacienda of the eggfruit ".

lucmapata

1.-Lucmapata.-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of one of the two following sentences kech-huas: " luc-ma pa-ta " or " luc-ma pat-taj ". The first says " of the eggfruit " and the second says " 34 lucuma plateau;.
2.-Lucmapata.-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of one of the two following sentences kech-huas: " luc-ma pa-ta " or " luc-ma pat-taj ". The first says " of the eggfruit " and the second says " 34 lucuma plateau;.

lucmaspata

Lucmaspata-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " luc-mash pat-taj " that means " they say the eggfruit is plateau ".

macacona

Macacona.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " magh-ghac-cun-na " that means " place where sticks " or " hit ". Or, also, " right place to paste ".

macacona hacienda

Macacona finance-is a village in the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua Magh-ghac-cun-na Hacienda meaning Hacienda where sticks.

macamaca

Macamaca.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " 34 magh-gham-man-gha; that means " I am going has hit " or the substantive kech-Hua " 34 magh-gham-magh-gha; It is a native grass.

macas

Macas-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative, possibly the phrase kech-hua " 34 magh-ghâsh-sha; that means " it has stuck him ".

macchanga

Macchanga.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " 34 mach-chang-gha; that means " will get drunk ".

macha

Macha.-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative, possibly, from the noun kech-hua " mach-chay " that means " cave ".

machacc

Machacc-is a village in the Department of Ancash in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " mach-chaj " that means " who gets drunk "

machaitambo

Machaitambo-is a village in the Department of La Libertad of Peru East name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " mach-chay tam-pu " that means " cave tambo " or " 34 drunkenness tambo;.

machaitambo hacienda

Machaitambo finance-is a village in the Department of La Libertad of Peru East name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " mach-chay tampu hacienda ".that means " hacienda del Tambo of the drunk ".

machamaca

Machamaca-is a village in the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is a derivative of one of the following two phrases kech-huas: " mash-sha-ma ca " or " mach-chay - ca 34 ma; The first means " I am son-in-law " and the second " I am cave ".

machay

Machay-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " mach-chay " that means " cave ".

machay

Machay-is a village in the Department of La Libertad of Peru East name is a derivative of the name kech-hua " mach-chay " that means " 34 cave; or verb kech-hua " mach-chay " that means " getting drunk ".

machaycancha

Machaycancha-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " mach-chay ghen-cha " that means " the cave 34 pen; or " cave poultry ".

majada

Majada-is a village in the Department of La Libertad of Peru East name is a derivative of the noun " majada ". Name with which the process pay a place, making sleep sheep on it is known.

mallagay

Mallagay-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the verb kech-hua " mall-llagh-ghay " that means " hungry ".

mantacocha

Mantacocha-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " man-ta ghoch-cha " that means " 34 explayada Lake; or " 34 extended lagoon;.

manzana ragra

Apple ragra.-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase " Apple ragh-ra " combination of casterllano and kech-hua. " Means broken Apple ".

maquia

Maquia.-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the verb kech-hua " mak-yay " that means " reach " and when you want to say " I reached " It says " mak-now ". This word has become Maquia

matechico

Matechico-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " mat-ti-tsic-coj " that means " uses the mate " or " served with Matt ".

matibamba

Matibamba-is a village in the Department of La Libertad of Peru East name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " mat - you pam-pa " that means " 34 mate plain;

matibamba

Matibamba-is a village in the Department of Ancash in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " mat - you pam-pa " that means " 34 mate pampa;.To repeat it many times they have replaced the p by b. There is the sound of the b in kech-hua

matibamba

Matibamba-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " mat - ti you pam-pa " that means " 34 mate plain;

matihuaca

Matihuaca-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " mat - ti huagh-ghaj " that means " kill that ". cries

mauca

Mauca.-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the adjective kech-hua " mau-ca " that means " old 34, " 34 used; (Referring to objects.)

mayocancha

Mayocancha-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " may-yu ghen-cha " that means " fencing or field of the river ".

mayochimpana

Mayochimpana.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " may-yu tsim-pan-na " that means " place where it crosses the River ".

mesapata

Mesapata-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " mish-sha-pa-ta " that means " of the stinging "

mesapata hacienda

Mesapata finance-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " mish-sha-pa-ta hacienda " that means " hacienda as the stinging ".

millpo

Millpo.-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the verb kech-hua " mill-puy " that means " swallowing 34, " to pass something down the throat ". And mill-pu means " I swallow "

millpo chico

Millpo guy-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " 34 mill-pu-tsi-coj; that means " making swallowing ".

mirabamba

Mirabamba-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " mir-raj pam-pa " that means " plain multiplying "

mitimae

Mitma, Word that the method used by the Incas are known for getting rid of which they were uncomfortable in conquered peoples and which consisted of enviarlos to distant places away from their village of origin where they could better serve to interests of the Incas, is a word meaning in La'kech-hua, according to losHistoriadores, do spread do.?? They are partly right, but it is precise to complete the idea that emanates from this word. The word do Mitma does is derived, certainly, from the verb La'kech-hua does do Mi-tsiy do whose meaning is does spreading, grazing do.?????? If this verb is appended with the suffix La'kech-hua do may do or do very does the verb becomes in do mi-tsi-may do or do mi-tsi-very do, whose meanings are, respectively, does sprinkle me, graze me do or do spreads, pasta do.???????????? So, possibly, do Mitma does is derived of do mi-tsi-may do or do my-tsi-very do??????

mito

Myth-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " mit - your " name that sedimented and wet clay is known.

mitobamba

Mitobamba-is a village in the Department of Ancash in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " mit - your pam-pa " that means " 34 clay pampa; therefore this element in kech-hua is known as " mit - your ".

mitobamba hacienda

Mitobamba finance-is a village in the Department of Ancash in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " mit - your pam-pa hacienda " that means " hacienda la Pampa of 34 clay;

míshacallo

Mishacallo-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " mish-sha ghall-llu " that means " 34 stinging language;

molle chacra

Molle farm-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " mull-lli farm " that means the "Farm of the Molle ". Molle is a tree.

mollebamba

Mollebamba-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " mull-lli pam-pa " that means " 34 molle plain;

mollebaya

Mollebaya.-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " mull-lli-pa-yaj " that means " until the molle ". Indicates a phenomenon of the moment that occurs in other plants or things. And it is also present in molle.

mollepata

Mollepata-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of one of the following two phrases kech-huas: " mull-lli pa-ta " or " mull-lli pat-taj ". The first says " of the molle " and the second, " 34 molle plateau;.

mollepata

Mollepata-is a village in the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is a derivative of one of the following two phrases kech-huas " mull-lli pat-taj " or " mull-lli pa-ta " that means " 34 molle plateau; and " the molle " respectively.

mollepuquio

Mollepuquio-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " mull-lli puk-yu " that means " eye of water where there are 34 molle;.

molletambo

Molletambo.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " mull-lli tam-pu " that means "The Inn of the Molle " or " the Inn where abundant molle "

molleyoc

Molleyoc.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " mull-lli-yoj " that means " has molle "

moro

Moro-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " mur-ru " that means " 34 seed;

moromolle

Moromolle-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " mur-ruj mull-lli " that means " 34 molle seeding;

mujumpa

Mujumpa-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " WOM-jun-pa " that means " by the boundary ".

muletambo

Muletambo-is a village in the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " mull-lli tam-pu " that means " 34 molle tambo;

mullipunco

Mullipunco-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " mull-lli pun-cu " that means " doors molle " or " gate where there are 34 molle;.

muna

Muna-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the verb kech-hua " mun-nay " that means " " love, " wish ". And " mun-na " means " " I wish, " I want to "

muña

Muna-is a village in the Department of Huánuco of Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " mun-na " it is known that is a shrub whose leaves have preservatives qualities, especially for potatoes.

muyuque

Muyuque-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " 34 very-yun-ki; that means " you damage, you wear you ". Because " very-Djoudj " It is a verb which means to wear out.

nahuimpuquio

Ñahuimpuquio-is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " nau-huin puc - l " that means " ojo de agua ".

nahuinbamba

Nahuinbamba-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " na-huan pam-pa " that means " plain do " (which speech ignores what is seeing and pronounce the substantive indeterminate accompanied 34 suffix na; huan " that means " ")

nahuinya

Nahuinya.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " nau-huin-yaj " that means " until his eye " referring to a water eye.

naiguapata hacienda

Naiguapata hacienda-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " nay-huan-pa-ta hacienda ". Formed by the noun phrase hacienda and a phrase that indicates something whose name is unknown who speaks, who belongs to what was observed for the same and will has participate in action.

napan

Napan.-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the verb kech-hua, indeterminate, " 34 nay; A verb that is conjugated to see an action or have knowledge of it, and not know or do not remember the verb that expresses such action. If, for example, would say " it is putting poncho " kech-hua, " I would say punch-chu-ta chur-rap-pan ". If the person who means it doesn't remember the last verb will say " punch-chu-ta-nap-bread ". This last word is the conjugation of " 34 nay;

nari

Nari-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " na ar-ri " that means " if do " (where speaking is unknown the name of the object or the person who is speaking and Miss only to pronounce the noun indeterminate " na " accompanied by the adverb " ar-ri " that means " Yes ").

nayguapata

Nayguapata-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " 34 nay-huan-pa-ta; Phrase that indicates something whose name is unknown which speaks, that petenece to that observed by the same and will have participate in action. Well that phrase in kech-hua is actually " nay - pa-ta-huan ". The kech-huas suffixes have a certain order and if you change them from place can change the meaning of the phrase.

neumoponia

The Neumoponia is a system consisting of feed plants with air for the root

ninabamba

Ninabamba-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " nin-na-pam-pa " that means " 34 fire plain;

ninabamba

Ninabamba-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " nin-na-pam-pa " that means " 34 fire plain;

ninapata

Ninapata.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " nin-na pat-taj " that means " 34 fire plateau;.

ocllac

Ocllac is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the verb kech-hua " oj-llay " that means " take shelter 34, " arrebozar; 34, " Harbor with the body 34. And " oj-llaj " It is that shelters, which arreboza, which shelters.

ollocopamba

Ollocopamba-is a village in the Department of La Libertad of Peru East name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " ull-lluc-cu pam-pa " that means " 34 olluco plain; Olluco is a tuber of the puna.

oquehuaico

Oquehuaico-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " ogh-ghe huay-gho " that means " avalanche of whitish, grey ". " Ogh-ghe " kech-hua is an adjective indicating that color. And " huay-gho " It is a noun that is known to the worm of Earth, which emerges from the ground when it rains.

With this same noun refers to avalanches. For this reason nowadays known avalanches as huaicos.

pacae

CPI-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " pa-cay " name with which a large leguminous fruit tree is known.

pacainihua

Pacainihua.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " 34 pac-cay-ni-huan; that means " my hidden "

pacasmayo

Pacasmayo-Pacasmayo is, also, a name derived from a quechua phrase: do company pagh-ghas may-yu which means do night River do.???? The first word means do night did and the second do rio do.???? These rivers are small streams of water arriving in certain places of the coast as a result of rains of sunset or sunrise in the sierra usually come at night and disappear at dawn leaving only moisture. This type of river there must be in this place called Pacasmayo. That is the name.

pacaynioc

Pacaynioc.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " pac-cay-ni-yoj " that means " has my hidden.

pachacamac

Pachacamac-obviously this name means island. This for several reason:primero: because this people there is an island.Secondly, Because this word is derived from a quechua phrase that is do pat-tsa, kam-maj which means do separate ground do.????Third: Because those who named the island in front of this town are the saw and in this region there are no Islands therefore in quechua there is no noun island. So the only way to indicate that you see an island or there is an island is saying that there is a land separate or do pat-tsa, kam-maj do, phrase that over time becomes Pachacamac.??

pachamayo

Pachamayo-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " pat-tsa may-yu, " that means " ground River ".

pachas

Pachas-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " pat-tsash " that means " he says that it is ground, land ".

pachas hacienda

Pachas finance.-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " pat-tsash hacienda " What says it is ground of the Treasury, is a land of hacienda.

paiball

Paiball-is a village in the Department of La Libertad of Peru East name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " pay-llap-pa " that means " only the ". To make " paiball " the sounds exchanged " llap " and " pa " becoming " pay-pall-pa ". Sound " pa " It has been removed and the letter " p " It has been changed by " (b) " becoming " paiball "

paijan

Paijan.-is a village in the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " pay-gham " that means " the " referring to someone who does something or have something.

pallasca

Pallasca.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " pall-lashgh-gha " that means " he has collected 34.

pallasca hacienda

Pallasca finance.-is a village in the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " pall-lashgh-gha hacienda " that means "Hacienda collection ".

palpa

Palpa.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " pall-lap-pay " that means " devote yourself to collect " referring to some thing that is abundant in the area and is easy to pick up. This phrase repeated many times has become in Palpa.

paltarumi

Paltarumi-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " pal-ta rrum - mi " that means " 34 flat stone.

pampa blanca

Pampa Blanca-is a village in the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " yur-raj pamp-pa " that means " pampa blanca ".

pampa blanca hacienda

Pampa Blanca finance.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " hacienda yur-raj pamp-pa " that means "Hacienda white 34 Pampa;.

pampa chacra

Pampa farm-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " farm pamp-pa " that means " the pampa who is 34 farm;

pampa huasi

Pampa Huasi.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " pamp-pa huas-si " that means " House of la pampa "

pampahuasi

Pampahuasi-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " pam-pa huas-si " that means " pampa House " or " pampa home ".

pampahuta

Pampahuta-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru. This name is derived from one of the following two phrases kech-huas: " pam-pa-hun-ta " or " pam-pa-huan-taj " that means " full plain " the first. AND "Not go to be with the plain ".

pampano

Pampano.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " 34 pamp-pa-nau; that means " as the pampa ".

pantaico

Pantaico.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " pant-tai-cu " that means " I mistook "

papa-huasi

Pope-huasi is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " pap-pa huas-si " that means " House potato ".

parobamba

Parobamba.-is a name derived from the quechua phrase " pair-ghoy pam-pa " meaning plateau or plain of irrigation, referring, perhaps, to the fact that this place fall of current small water heights, product of rains in those heights.

pasamayo

Pasamayo.-this name derives from the quechua phrase " pats-tsa may-yu " that means " ground 34 River;. Phrase which coincides with the fact that, due to the slope of the place, the sand slides continuously. Meanwhile, on the road which crosses the place there is always a mechanical shovel that deals of clean sand that falls to her.

pascana

Pascana.-place north of Lima. Derives its name from the verb do pas-cay which means does unleash do, which when changing the do and do end with the suffix do na do becomes in do pas-ca-na which means do place where breaks do, which, for continuous use, becomes the word do Pascana do??????????????

pascana

Pascana is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the verb kech-hua " pas-cay " that means " unleash ". And when you replace the " and " " na " It says " pas-ca-na " that means " site where unleashes ".

pascana

Pascana.-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of one of the two following sentences kech-huas: " pas-ca-na " or " pas-ca-na ". The first " means place where unleashes " and the second " already unleashed ". They differ by the accentuation of sounds. The first has the first pointed sound and the second the Middle sound.

pascaymayo

Pascaymayo-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " pas-cay may-yu, " that means " River which is unleashed ".

patacancha

Patacancha.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " pat-taj ghench-cha " that means " plateau Court "

patacancha

Patacancha is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " pat-taj ghen-cha " that means " 34 plateau poultry;

patahuasi

Patahuasi.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " pat-taj huas-si " that means " plateau House "

patahuasi

Patahuasi is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative, possibly the phrase kech-hua " pat-aj huas-si " that means " House plateau "

patahuasi

Patahuasi-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " pat-taj huas-si " that means " 34 House plateau;

patanday

Patanday-is a village in the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " pat-tsan tsay " that means " it is their region " or " is domiciled-"

patapampa

Patapampa.-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " pat-pam-pa 34 taj; that means " 34 plateau pampa;

patapatayo

Patapatayo-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " pat-taj-pat-taj-yoj " " which means plateau with plateau ".

pataquena

Pataquena-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " pat-taj-jin-na " that means " despite the 34 plateau;.

pati

Pati-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the noun kech-hua " pat - ti " that is the name of a tree that has the particularity of having a tuberous root which like goats. They often say that like goats because it contains a stimulating substance.

pay-pay

Pay-pay-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the pronoun kech-hua " pay " that means " the " so " pay-pay " It is " he, the "

pay-pay

Pay-pay-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the pronoun kech-hua " pay " that means " the " so pay-pay is, it

penacaca

Penacaca-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is also possibly derived from the phrase kech-hua " pin-naj ghagh gha " that means " mount or quebrada that bother ".

peñacaca

Penacaca-is a village in the departamento de La Libertad of Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " pin-naj ghagh gha " that means " mount or quebrada that bother ".

perdiz

Partridge is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the Spanish noun " Partridge ". Name of bird that is known as 34 kech-Hua; tsak-hua ".

peruane

Peruane-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru. This name is derived from the phrase kech-hua " ni 34 pir-hua; that means " spindle, say "

peruru

Peruru.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the noun kech-hua " pir-rur-ru ". It is the name with which a small fossil marine of two to three centimeters in diameter. The native Pierce in the center point and use it in your tool of yarn. This is probably possible, because this fossil appears to be a small sea urchin.

perurupata

Perurupata.-it is a village of the Department of Ica, its name comes from the phrase kech-hua " pir-rur-ru pat-taj " that means " the pir-rur-ru 34 plateau; or " 34 Hedgehog plateau; or " fossil Sea Urchin ".

perú

The word Peru has a long way in their training. It starts at the sugar cane and the fact that Spaniards who came to this part of the world seems to be that they didn't know sugar cane. To this is added the fact that the native Los when carrying something and a stranger asks what are you carrying? Or points out the object, does not answer saying what has been but says do is mine do.?? This in quechua is achieved by emphasizing the last letter of the name being pronounced. And in quechua sugar cane is called do flee-ru do, Word to accentuate the last do u do becomes do flee-ru do, or do is my cane do.???????? This statement Spaniards make it in do viru do, changing the sound does hui do in do vi does, because there is no sound in the quechua language of the do v do.???????? The girl, or the great. Possibly to spread the word of the years are viru does turn into Peru.??

pincullo

Pincullo.-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " 34 pin-cull-llu;. Name of a musical instrument from a very particular design, made of thin Reed

pingullo

Pingullo-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name also, possibly, is a derivative of the suatantivo kech-hua " 34 pin-cull-llu;. Name of a musical instrument, a very particular design, made of thin Reed

piquimarca

Piquimarca is a village in the Huanuco Department of the Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " pik-ki " name that is known to the " nigua ". And " pik-ki brand " means " the chigger 34 region;

pircapampa

Pircapampa-is a village in the Department of La Libertad of Peru East name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " per-gha pam-pa " that means " 34 wall flatness. It indicates a relationship between wall and plain.

pisco

Pisco-no doubt this name means do bird does, therefore derives from the quechua noun does pish-gho do, name with which is known to all small birds.???? Clear, without removing your own name as do pich-chuy-chan-ca do, do cuc-cul-li, ghagh-ghach-chu, etc, etc.???

piscobamba

Piscobamba-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " pish-gho pam-pa " that means " 34 bird plain;

piscoota

Piscoota-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of one of the following two phrases kech-huas " pish-gho-ta " that means " to my bird " or " 34 pish-gho-ta; that means " the bird ". By the repetition of the " or " possibly, the most probable is that the first sentence is the origin of this name.

poc poc

POC-poc-is a village in the Department of La Libertad in Peru. This name is a derivative of the interjection kech-hua " poj-poj! " word that described the blows given over something hollow. It may be over the head.

poco huayo

Little Huayo.-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " pogh-ghoj huay-yu " that means " plant that it matures ".

pocoma

Pocoma.-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " 34 pogh-ghon-ma; that means " if it matures ".

pocoma hacienda

Pocoma finance.-is a town in the Department of Moquegua in Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua-Castilian " pogh-ghon-ma hacienda " that means " hacienda if it matures ".

pocomore

Pocomore-is a village in the Department of Moquegua in the Peru this name is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " pogh-gho-mur ar-ri " that means " Yes, mature ".

pocso

Pocso-is a village in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name is a derivative of the noun kech-hua " poj-so " that means " puddle 34, " 34 poso;.

pomabamba

Pomabamba-is a town in the Department of Ancash in Peru this name, too, is a derivative of the phrase kech-hua " pum-pam-pa 34 ma; that means " 34 puma plain;