

SPANISH DICTIONARY

Jacqueline Petingi Labastie

INTRODUCTION

www.wordmeaning.org is an open and collaborative dictionary project that, apart from being able to consult meanings of words, also offers its users the possibility of including new words or nuancing the meaning of existing words in it. As is understandable, this project would be impossible to carry out without the esteemed collaboration of the people who follow us around the world. This e-Book, therefore, was born with the intention of paying a small tribute to all our collaborators.

Jacqueline Petingi Labastie has contributed to the dictionary with 3 meanings that we have approved and collected in this small book. We hope that the reader is very valuable and if you find it useful or want to be part of the project, do not hesitate to visit our website, we will be delighted to receive you.

Working Group

www.wordmeaning.org

cabilar

Thinking on something with a deep reflection or giving many turns to a subject. BUT the proper way to write the word is "Cavilar" with "v" not with "b". One person may be "cavilando" (musing) around an idea.

hinchar las pelotas

Literally, "hinchar las pelotas" is "inflate the balls", but it means "don't bullshit to me" or "stop the gibberish!". Also it can be used in reference to someone particularly annoying, to the point he filled the balls.

ser de cajón algo

"ser de cajón" or when something "es de cajón" means that that thing is taken for granted the way it is, so that it does not need explanation. "De cajón": "it fits in the drawer" is in fact a metaphor.
